

Consultants 2 Go Launches New South Central Branch in Texas

(PRBuzz.com) August 21, 2013 -- Consultants 2 Go, a management consulting firm that provides marketing and analytic resources and solutions, has opened its new Texas branch, enabling its expansion to cover the South Central region for its customer base of Fortune 500 and mid-size companies. Peggy McHale and Sandi Webster, principals of Consultants 2 Go, have engaged Javier Hernandez to build and lead the new Texas branch based out of Dallas. The company currently has offices in Newark, New Jersey, Brooklyn, New York, and Hollywood, Florida.

"We are excited to have a company representative in Dallas. Texas is a rapidly growing state for small business owners and Dallas is at the forefront of this growth. We look forward to contributing to the economic welfare of this state," said Sandi Webster, a principal in the certified minority and women-owned business. Business partner, Peggy McHale, added, "With Javier, we are able to service our current clients, not just in the Dallas area but throughout the region. We welcome his expertise in building new relationships."

As the latest addition to the Consultants 2 Go team, Javier Hernandez said, "The time to build and grow is NOW, and the Dallas office will be helping clients in Texas and the surrounding states to lead the way in one of the most dynamic markets on the globe. Javier brings 20+ years of global management, consulting, and business ownership to the role of Vice President of Business Development. He has served clients in 72 countries, 4 continents and all 50 US states ranging from upstarts to multinational enterprises across industries that include technology, health care, finance, professional services, retail, energy, manufacturing and transportation.

Sandi Webster and Peggy McHale started Consultants 2 Go in 2002, after successful corporate careers, including working together at American Express in New York City in marketing leadership roles. After ten successful years in business, Consultants 2 Go has grown to include international consulting and Sandi and Peggy still champion women-owned and small businesses. For three consecutive years, Consultants 2 Go has made the Inc. 500|5000 Fastest Growing Companies list and has won numerous awards such as the 2012 Enterprising Women Award. This women-owned, minority business has also been featured in Forbes Magazine and on the cover of Money Magazine and the NY Enterprise Report. Sandi and Peggy also belong to the Manhattan Chamber of Commerce, Women Presidents' Organization and are advisory board members of the Women's Center for Entrepreneurship Corporation in New Jersey.
