Dear Sandi,

Congratulations on once again building a million-dollar business!

As one of the awardees to cross this incredible milestone in both 2006 and 2007 revenues, you continue to exemplify the essence of the Make Mine a Million $ Business movement and illustrate the image of a successful woman entrepreneur. You are an inspiration not only to American Express OPEN® and Count Me In, but to women entrepreneurs across the U.S. who share the same goals.

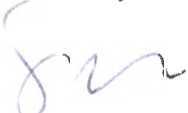

We are pleased to see that all members of the “Elite Eight” group of awardees that crossed the million dollar barrier last year have accomplished this feat again this year. Your continued success serves as a shining example to the power of the “million dollar mindset.”

Now that you’ve surpassed the million-dollar threshold for the second consecutive year, we are happy to welcome you back as a member of the elite $Million Club. In addition to sharing your best practices with awardees that have yet to surpass the million dollar barrier and being an advocate for the program, inclusion in this exclusive group will permit you additional mentoring and panel participation at upcoming program events as well as potential publicity opportunities.

With your help, we were proud to announce 19 new million dollar awardees this year.

We are thrilled to officially welcome you back to the $Million Club. We look forward to seeing you at one of the upcoming Make Mine a Million $ Business events in 2008, and to hearing about your continued accomplishments.

Sincerely,

Susan Sabbott
