

Evert Outen, originally from Australia, and his band have putting on great shows in and around London since mid 2017, introducing audiences to a fresh new sound.

Front man Evert Outen (keys and vocals) is supported by an extremely talented line up of musicians including Chris Booth (guitar), Jack Summerfield (drums), Harvey Small (bass), Alex Sinclair (drums) and Alex Baker (guitar).

Having initially met at college Evert, Jack and Chris began working together developing their own original sound - a blend of blues, rock and soul. After the launch of their first EP in November 2017, Harvey went from fan to member, having seen them perform and casually enquired if they needed a bassist!

Evert Outen and the band have been going from strength to strength playing venues throughout London and the South East as well as recording new material at Peter Gabriel's Real World Studios.

Through their varied careers and backgrounds, the band have drawn from a range of musical influences such as Ray Charles, Paul Kelly, Ralph Salmins, Rag n Bone Man and many others to create lyrically led rock and blues tracks.
