Twice The Man I Was

Strolling down Atlantic Avenue

I'm looking for adventure, something new

And there is not a single thing I wouldn't do

I'm looking at the way it used to be

Things are clear that I could never see

And the world is now the way it was meant to be

And I'm Twice The Man I Was

I'm so tired of drivin' down a one way street

I live on the island where three rivers meet

I hated myself for the way I was

But now I can forgive myself because

I'm Twice The Man I Was

Oh so good to be back home again

And I'm so relieved I missed the bitter end

Cos the gratitude on which my life depends

Says I'm Twice The Man I Was

Well I bathed in the fountain of eternal youth

Prayed on the mountain where Jesus soothed

Chastised the Devil where the prophets stood

One foot in Eden, one in Hollywood

I loved all the women that I never should

You know it's all because

I'm Twice The Man I Was

Simple situations used to baffle me

Blind to the colours that I couldn't see

I stared in the face of death a thousand times

Slid down the razor blade of public life

I was broken and beaten, now I'm energized

I'm Twice The Man I Was

Destiny

Mama, I was just a kid

I would always take the blame, for things I never did

Later on, and the world was in my hands

When I threw it all away, I knew that you'd understand

Someday I will see

When final waves wash over me

That there is only One who can command me

I know myself, and I know where I belong

I don't believe in looking back, for that's all dead and gone

For now, in the present I reside

I free my soul of everything, I have nothing to hide

Someday, I will see

When the final waves crash over me

That I am just a teardrop in the ocean

My destiny...dictates to me

I know, it's not up to me, whatever will be, will be

Our destiny...

Fate, it seems, has a compass all its own

And I don't need to know the path,

I don't want to be shown

It's not my place, and it was never meant to be

The secrets of the universe, not yet for me to see...

Someday, when I go

Oh, oh, it's good to know

That I am just a rock upon the mountain

My destiny...dictates to me

You know, it's not up to me, whatever will be, will be

Our destiny

(This is our destiny, written for you and me

This is our destiny, that's how it's meant to be)

Presently, all things will be revealed, so then I'll know

There is a time to stand, and one to kneel

Courage, is the power given me

The strength to rise up from the floor, and be what I wanna be...

So Mama, when I go

Oh, oh, it's good to know

That I was just a wheel in something turning...

Green Lights and Blue Skies

Living life for today

Who cares what lies ahead now?

Like a new religion

Is this real?

Green Lights and Blue Skies

Follow your dream

Green Lights and Blue Skies

Colour your dream

Watching sounds in stereo

Morphing into monochrome

Pictures on the big screen

Is this real?

Creatures take the dance floor

Bodies moving close to mine

Acid pumps through my brain

Is this real?

Walk out of this fever

Zombies ever close to me

Holy fire, what is this?

Is this real?...

Raven

Raven, take me to the edge of darkness,

Hold me, through the emptiness I feel

Evening, gliding to our destiny,

Dark angels, in nocturnal symmetry
Precious one, you lead me on and on
Lift me up, we kiss, then turn away
Nightfall, I teach you how to cry and how to love me
There's no other, I know you so well
Dreaming, falling through a velvet curtain
Certain to embrace the dawning day
Precious one, you lead me on and on
Lift me up, we kiss, then turn away
Raven, be so bold and beautiful,
And lead me, to the perfect masquerade
Hold me, give me all, and I won't let you fall
I carry you home in silence
Corvo, luna, volo...and teach me how to fly...

My Life Is In Your Hands

I walk down this road, thinking of you
The whisper of leaves, says 'what can I do?'
(Round and round) I've been circling
(Up and down) I've been up and I've been down
Still on my mind, no time on my side
Hope is alive, for love that had died
(Round and round) I've been circling around
(Up and down) On a rollercoaster

(Round and round) I've been up and I've been down

(Up and down) And my life goes on and on...

All my life, I've been waiting for you

All this time, I've been hanging on a line

All my life, I've been trying to make you understand

My Life Is In Your Hands

So maybe one day, I'll see you again

Only through love, the faith will remain

Still on my mind, no time on my side

Hope is alive, for a love that had died

My life is in your hands

Thinking of you

What can I do

Maybe one day...

Sex, Power $ Money

Seen from the planets, on earth nothing has changed

Nations of gannets, vastly deranged

The laws of the jungle, all old rules still apply

Be it Sydney, Baghdad or Berlin, Mumbai or Mandalay Bay

Our personal standards are falling day by day

The wealthy get richer, that's the name of everyone's game

Sex, Power and Money, all I want is...

Sex, Power and Money, all I need is...

No god, or nationality will stand in my way

Be I Brit, Norwegian or Pharisee, avarice wins my day

So lock up your daughter, I have a wealth of moral decay

Under The Sky

Remember the days gone by, when we fell in love

Everything that we had been dreaming of

All of our prayers were answered,

Nothing was left to chance, and

Nothing was in our way

Remember the lonely nights and the telephone

Comforting words to you when you're all alone

Always a hand to soothe you

Always a word to move you

I never questioned why...

Under The Sky I hold you

Under the azure sky

And with this ring of gold, you'll

Love me until you die (till you die, till you die)

I just hadn't noticed where all the time had gone

I abandoned my hopes and dreams, and I carried on

Now it's too late to save it

I guess you had better face it

I've come to say goodbye...

Under The Sky you hold me

Under a blood red sky

And of the vow you told me

Was it a total lie? (Did you lie, did you lie?)

Don't Go Out Tonight

I'm the last man standing when I'm out on the town

But now I'm looking over my shoulder

I'm a dead man walking with one hand in the game

And my feet are getting colder and colder

Don't go, don't go

My mind is racing, there's a war going on

In my head the words of wisdom are ringing...

You say: Ooh, Don't Go Out Tonight,

Just stay home and watch some TV

Ooh, Don't Go Out Tonight,

Face the music, take it easy...

Well, I can't stop thinking I'm the star of the show

I'm the life and soul of the party

Yes, it's all plain sailing when there's people around

But alone, it seems I never get started

Don't go, don't go

It's a fine line now between the wrong and the right

And the path to the light is unending

Never Thought I'd See You Again

Sitting in this hotel room with nowhere to go

Tuned into the morning show on my radio

I heard the tune we sang from long, long ago

And I think about the way we used to be...you and me

I thought I'd head out to the place we used to go

Same old Wurlitzer and booth we used to know

All the laughter and the tears came back to me

And the memory of everything that we shared...you and me

And you can tell all the world that I'm here for you

I waited for ten long years for this to come true

Now that the sun is shining, yeah, through the pouring rain

Well, sweet heavens above, but

I Never Thought I'd See You Again

Imagine my surprise at last, what do I see?

Like a vision, here you are, looking at me

Nothing's changed, you are the same, ever to be

And we know that our patience has been rewarded...you and me

I think about the time we lost, what can I say?

It's just the water under bridge, flowing away

Now there's sunlight in my life, every day

Now you're here, now I can never let you go...oh, no no

Peace In Our Time

New millennium, in south California

Bearded and barefoot, a Rockman lived in a cave

And I'd ask him 'what lies in the future?

Is this the end, or can we survive?'

And he said...

'Peace in Our Time, love will redeem us

Let your heart be at rest

Sing with joy as the love moves between us

Love is, love is the best...

'Peace in our time - Oh Yeah,' said the Rockman

'That's what we pray for, this I know

Stick around me, till the miracle happens

Look to the heavens, this will be so'

Pax in tempore nostro

Amor semper vincet
