

WELCOME TO HEAVEN complete album lyrics

Heart of Darkness

Doing fine now, I'm feeling better

Must admit that I was riding for a fall

Can't explain how, I'm not a quitter

Still it seems sometimes I have no luck at all

Ain't it funny how time can change things

Now I know it was worth all the waiting

In the heart of darkness there's a golden light

Like a silent witness, it's burning bright

In the depth of sadness, in the dead of night

In the heart of darkness, there's a golden light

In my lifetime, there's been trouble

When I was young I knew that things were gonna change

Now it's my time, those days are gone forever

I can realize there's only me to blame

Ain't it funny how time can change things

Now I know it was worth all the waiting

In the heart of darkness there's a golden light

Like a silent witness, it's burning bright

In the depth of sadness, in the dead of night

In the heart of darkness, there's a golden light

Say it Ain't So

I realized all the things that I'd taken for granted

Peace, there in your eyes, was everything I ever wanted my life to be

I've seen all the signs, I'd better believe what they're saying

Read every line, of your letter, I tell you I'm praying

Say it's not true, no, it couldn't be so

But the look in your eye's telling me otherwise

I stand tall, ready to fall

Somehow I know that I'm throwing it all away

Say it ain't so, say we can turn back the clock for one day

Say it ain't so, what I'm hearing now, darling, I don't wanna know, Oh no

Say it ain't so, say we can turn back the clock for one day

Say it ain't so, what I'm hearing now, darling, I don't wanna know, Oh no

Say it ain't so, far away that these memories lose all their meaning

I wanna know, that you'll stay, 'cause part of me won't stop believing

What can I do? Oh I can't let you go, please won't you see what you're doing to me?

If it's true, well, let me hear it from you

How can I live when I'm giving it all away

Say it ain't so, tell me it's all in my mind, I've been dreaming

Say it ain't so, I can't help what I'm feeling, I gotta know

Say it ain't so, I promise whatever you want, I'll be waiting

I can take all the pain but I can't let you go, oh no...

I'll make it up to you

If I can find a way

Tell me what I have to do

I'm begging you to stay

Say it ain't so, I can't help what I'm feeling, I gotta know

Say it ain't so, say we can turn back the clock for one day

I can take all the pain but I can't let you go, oh no....

I realized, all the things that I'd taken for granted

Peace, in your eyes, was everything I ever wanted

Say it ain't so....

No Ordinary Miracle

Here I stand, not so different from the rest

A common man, with an uncommon dream inside

I won't be satisfied, with the fortunes I've been blessed

For there's one thing I've been denied

Till you arrived, now I'm trying not to break

This spell I'm under

If the heavens would calm the seas, and a hush fell on every horizon

I would not be amazed, not for one moment

For 'though we are past the age of miracles

Maybe this one's overdue

'Cause I've been sent no ordinary miracle

This miracle is you

Here we are, as we face another day, and come what may

We must stand and be counted

As one must hope and pray, for the courage and the strength

That I never doubted, oh it's my belief

That a single prayer has the power of thunder

If the heavens would calm the seas, and a hush fell on every horizon

I would not be amazed, not for one moment

For 'though we are past the age of miracles

Maybe this one's overdue

'Cause I've been sent no ordinary miracle

This miracle is you

In a lifetime of chains, it's never too late

In patience we wait for a gift from the blue

To carry us through, to carry us through...

If the heavens would part the seas so that all hands could reach to each other

I would not be amazed, not for one moment

For 'though we are past the age of miracles, maybe this one's overdue

'Cause I've been sent no ordinary miracle

This miracle is you

For 'though we are past the age of miracles, maybe this one's overdue

'Cause I've been sent no ordinary miracle

This miracle...is you

Where Do We Go From Here?

A stolen glance, a shared romance

We should have said goodbye

Instead we found a secret love, that no-one knows

Just you and I

So we held on for so long, no need to question why

Now I fight back the feeling

I can't resist, I can't give in, but to carry on would be a sin, tell me

Where do we go from here?

Where do we turn now that everything has changed

The colours are fading that once were so clear, so

Where do we go, where do we go from here?

I walk in the shadows, stand in the rain

You run to our rendez-vous, I ask myself

Will I see the same girl I used to, or a stranger to me?

The sweet taste of danger

The same charade in a cheap hotel, or is it love?

I just can't tell, so

Where do we go from here?

Where do we turn now that everything has changed

The colours are fading that once were so clear, so

Where do we go, where do we go from here?

Another Twist of the Knife

When the night rolls in, black as sin

I don't need reminding 'bout the shape I'm in

Well I hate to lose, but I know I can't win with you

Yeah, the laugh's on me but enough is enough

My cover's blown over, and I ain't that tough

It's the same old joke, and it's getting real old

Your alibis, baby, are leaving me cold...

You and me, our worlds collide

All that's left is pain and pride

Every day you ain't in my life, all I feel inside is...

Another twist of the knife

Here it comes again

Another twist of the knife

I'm living in pain

Another twist of the knife

Well, my life with you is a one way street

In a town made of ice, where there ain't no heat

It's a crying shame, but I get no love from you

When the highway's closed and the gates are shut

Your heart is a place that I just can't touch

One last thing 'fore you walk away

Turn out the lights on memory lane...

(chorus)

Go on, cut me until I bleed

Show me just what you feel for me

I got no more to lose

So do what you gotta do...

Silently

Words can't explain

What you mean to me now

Now what can remain?

All we have lost in pain, and love has won again

When we opened our hearts

What were we fighting for?

I can't remember

I think we've said enough

Let's stay together

Silently, in serenity, let it be, and come to me silently

This is what I

Want it to be

And know that you

Longed for it too

But we both were afraid

What were we fighting for?

I can't remember

I think we've said enough

Let's stay together

Silently, in serenity, let it be, and come to me silently

But in the end it will depend on you and me...

Before Your Eyes

Yesterday you thought the flame has flickered again

A feeling from the past you'd recognize

But maybe tomorrow morning I won't be there

Cos if you're looking for the answer, then it's

Right before your eyes

Look into the mirror, who is it you see?

The face of someone now as cold as ice

The anger in your mind turns now toward regret

If you're looking for the answer

Then it's right before your eyes

When your bed is empty

And you're thinking of me

Your mind will dwell on all your sacrifice

For surely tomorrow morning, I won't be there

And if you're looking for the answer, then it's

Right before your eyes

Second Best

When you called me, and you told me that you needed someone

I was hoping that that someone was me

Here you are and now I know that I've been fooling myself

If you love someone else

Don't come running to me for help, 'cause

I don't wanna know how he broke your heart, 'n'

I don't wanna know how you cried

I won't stand in his shoes, I won't play the part, not like the rest, no

I'm never gonna be your second best

I remember when you left me all the reasons you gave

Why his love would be much stronger than mine

You believed his promises, but all that glitters ain't gold

Won't fall for it again

Using me to get back at him, so

I don't wanna know how he broke your heart, 'n'

I don't wanna know how you cried

I won't stand in his shoes, I won't play the part, not like the rest, no

I'm never gonna be your second best

Oh it hurts, for you, girl

It's the end of your world

What about me? When you left

How's it feel to be second best?

Real World

Is it just an illusion, that I'm losing it, it didn't happen yesterday

Is it only confusion, that I'm using amusing

myself from day to day

Tell the truth, have we gone too far?

Losing sight of what we did and who we are

'Cause it's the real world that we're living in

And with human kind I feel I don't fit in

Sometimes it just frightens me to think of where I've been

And the many times I felt like giving in

But the real world is the right place to begin

Love Is

You come here looking for asylum, from a world that doesn't understand

I'm not an easy touch, I've lived too long and seen too much, and not about to fall at your command

I've been a fool for your affection

And part of me would love to take you in

Your innocence has caught me, but a thousand nights have taught me that...

Love is...more than a fire

Love goes...beyond desire

Love stands...when everything falls apart

I don't think that you know what...Love is Love is, Love is, God knows, there's gotta be so much more

Say it again when you know what Love is

I could take advantage of the situation

Say I'll make your every wish come true

You in your world of dreams, where money talks and beauty screams

You got the whole scenario in view

And so you look in my direction

You're bringing me another broken heart

Your ego may be dented, but as much as I am tempted...

(chorus)

You know there was a time, if you had come my way

I would have welcomed you with open arms

Begging you to stay, but maybe not today, no way...

Space and Time

Just a face, I saw for a moment
Flashing eyes, inscribed on my soul
I reach to you, through another dimension
So if you feel a shiver, you'll know

I can see you clearer and clearer
Through the mist like a beacon's light
You reflect in a distant mirror
Moving through space and time tonight

I am calling you, can you hear me?
All alone on a midnight flight
Is it foolish to think that feelings flow
Through space and time tonight?

It chills the air, like the feeling of danger
A presence felt, an ethereal light
A silhouette, the scent of a stranger
I know it's you, with me tonight
I can see you clearer and clearer
Concentrate with all your might
You reflect in a distant mirror
Altering space and time tonight

I am calling you, can you reach me?
All alone on a midnight flight
Is it foolish to think that feelings flow
Through space and time tonight?
I am thinking about you right now
I'll arrive with the morning light
It's a message I rush to you, alone
Through space and time tonight

Tell me do you believe in what can't be explained?
What our reason will not allow
Moving out of this world, passing through space and time
To a love that is here and now...
