Arthur Baum

Arthur discovered Scottish country dancing as a young adult and was instantly hooked by its combination of thrilling music, intricate patterns, and aerobic athleticism—not to mention the warm welcome he received as a new dancer. Arthur started dancing in Los Angeles before moving to North Carolina. He attended TAC Summer School as a Bob Blackie scholar in 2012 and completed his RSCDS teaching certificate at St. Andrews in 2016. Since then, Arthur has taught dancers of all levels. He currently teaches a weekly class in Charlotte, North Carolina, and recently taught classes to great acclaim at Scottish Weekend.

Highland Square

Highland Square, led by Elissa Hock-Wimmer on piano, has its origins in the SCD music group The Music Makars. Fred Mamula (fiddle) and Jack Lindberg (flute/whistle/mandolin) formed an integral part of The Music Makars for many years, and Elissa was mentored by Etienne Ozorak and played piano with them. Arthur McNair learned to play accordion while listening to the special Etienne Music Makars sound. Each member contributes a unique sound and musical flavor to all the Scottish country dance sets, bringing an energy and beauty to the music and dance floor.

Washington, PA

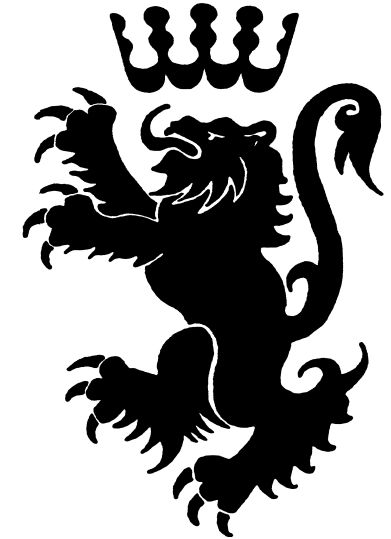

Our dance event will take place at The Washington Elks Lodge in Washington, PA. This is a lovely location with a beautiful two-story ballroom and a wooden floor that is perfect for dancing. This is a popular location for weddings and dance events, and we are thrilled to be there again this year.

If you need to stay overnight, we suggest the nearby Hampton Inn hotel, where many of us stay and have an after-party.
