Each year the New England Chamber Choir distributes printed programs at seven performances throughout Connecticut. We estimate the number of concert attendees each year to be somewhere between 1500 and 2000.

Advertisements will appear in three different program booklets throughout the season: Music for Christmas in December (two performances); Music for Lent & Easter in March (two performances); and Music for Spring in late May or early June (one performance).

To be included in our Music for Christmas program, please submit your camera-ready advertisement, along with this form, by November 1. The format that works best with our program assembly is a PDF; submitting in this format ensures the correct appearance of your advertisement.

Thank you for your consideration and support.
