The Shimmering Moon – Silves, Algarve

This luxurious villa has been designed for large groups seeking a relaxing stay on the Algarve. The big swimming pool can be heated and there's a hot tub for spa sessions (for an additional fee). Outdoor dining comes courtesy of the portable barbecue and there are layers of terraces and balconies to this place. It's modern and bright inside, with a sociable, open living area and a dedicated games room. You'll find this villa in Armação de Pera, just 750 metres from the golden sandy beach and an easy walk to shops, supermarkets, restaurants and bars.

About Guia

Guia, nestled in Portugal's Algarve region, is a quaint and charming area renowned for its rustic beauty and culinary delights, particularly the spicy piri-piri chicken that has put it on the gastronomic map. This serene village, with its whitewashed buildings and narrow streets, offers a peaceful retreat from the bustling coastal resorts. Surrounded by rolling vineyards and fertile farmland, Guia is a haven for those seeking a taste of authentic Portuguese rural life. The area is also a gateway to some of the Algarve's most stunning natural attractions, including the nearby Salgados Lagoon, a wildlife haven where birdwatchers can observe a variety of bird species in their natural habitat. The local beaches, such as Galé, are less crowded than their more famous counterparts, boasting golden sands and crystal-clear waters ideal for sunbathing, swimming, and water sports. Despite its small size, Guia offers a surprising array of shops, traditional restaurants, and bars, where locals and visitors mingle, sharing stories and enjoying the relaxed pace of life.
