

Comparing/Contrasting Crisis Intervention (CI), Cognitive-Behavioral Therapies (CBT), Forensic Pathology (FP), Traditional Psychological Autopsies (TPA), and NCITI's Psychological Autopsy (NCITI-PA) and Therapeutic Psychological Autopsy (NCITI-TPA) Methodologies

Characteristics	CI	CBT	FP	TPA	NCITI PA	NCITI TPA
State / Decedent = Primary Client			X	X	X
Family = Primary Client or Co-Client w/State	X	X				X
Primary Multi-Disciplinary Team Approach				X	X	X
Evidence-based Methodology	X	X	X		X	X
Primary Forensic Focus			X	X	X	X
Primary Clinical Focus	X	X				X
Requires Forensic Skills	X		X	X	X	X
Requires Clinical Skills	X	X		X	X	X
Requires Legal Expertise			X	X	X	X
Evidence-preservation Paramount			X	X	X	X
Evidence-Preservation High Priority	X
Holistically Addresses B.A.S.I.C.S.	X	X				X
L.U.V. Model (Listen/Understand/Validate)	X	X				X
Gathers Evidence			X	X	X	X
Utilizes Primary and/or Collateral Interview	X	X	X	X	X	X
Directly Provides Case Management and Aftercare						X
Directly Involved in Scientific Research			X	X	X	X
Actively Promotes Methodological Changes					X	X
Positively Contributes to Reputation of Profession	X	X	X	X	X	X
Evidence-Preservation Medium Priority		X
Answers Questions	X	X	X	X	X	X
Changes Perspective	X	X	X	X
Identifies and Facilitates Opportunities	X	X			X	X
Identifies and Facilitates Resources	X	X
Enlightening	X	X	X	X	X	X
Empowering	X	X				X
Isolation-breaking	X	X				X
Ameliorating	X	X				X
Preventative	X	X				X
Educational	X	X	X	X	X	X
ID's Hidden Questions	X	X	X	X	X	X
Prevents Complicated Grief	X	X				X
Treats Complicated Grief		X				