

COOKING OUT OF THE PANTRY

Last Sunday, Jackie Vecchiarelli once again shared her expertise and delicious recipes with us. It was a wonderful afternoon filled with good food and new friends. Thank you, Jackie, for making this event possible and so very delicious! Thank you to all those who attended on a hot Sunday afternoon, and a special thank you to my family and Jude Pickel for all their help in getting the wonderful food out for everyone to enjoy. I hope at our next event you will come and join us and share in a great afternoon. Please enjoy the recipes from Cooking out of the Pantry's most recent gathering.
