USING TALENTS CAN BE EXHAUSTING

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

In Sunday's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus tells a parable about individuals being given different talents. There is some ambiguity in exactly what is meant by talents. When we hear of talents we think of things like being able to play the banjo or carving a Thanksgiving turkey. In Luke's gospel, the word talent is substituted with gold coins when the same story is told. Regardless of what word or image was originally used, the message is the same. God gives to us abilities and treasures. They are meant to be used wisely to help build His kingdom. As we approach Thanksgiving, we need to be mindful of all that God has given us and to ask whether we are using those gifts well. For the sake of this article, I will speak about talents as the unique abilities that each of us has been given.

First, it takes time to discern the gifts God has given. I first started thinking about priesthood when I was in seventh grade. The idea of preaching was attractive to me. It took years to understand with greater clarity what God was calling me to do. It took time for me to learn about and hone my own skills in preaching. At this stage of my life I believe I am doing that which God has called me to do. I pray that I am using that gift to the fullest of my ability. Understanding and using well one gift need not be the end of the story. God can continue to reveal abilities we have as life unfolds. Sometimes it takes the experiences in life to awaken in us an awareness that there is more we can do to make a difference.

There is something affirming and life-giving when we use well the gifts God has given. There are moments when we can see the fruit of our efforts. But there are also times when the bounty of our work takes time to be revealed. It can feel as though we are emptying ourselves. It can be tiring. Most Sunday afternoons, I end up falling asleep on my couch shortly after I get back to my house. I love Sunday mornings. It is an endless encounter with many people. The schedule of Masses and other parish activities can be fast-paced and seemingly endless. I love the activity, but I am pooped. I am not alone in having this kind of experience. I can only imagine that parents feel it even more often. There must be something wonderful and life-giving in caring for children, but there must be something draining as well. Parents know their focus is not their individual wants and desires, but rather caring for the ones God has entrusted to them. One of my favorite sung verses is from the song "Gracious God." We sing, "we give our lives away." There are probably times when all of us would like to be selfish with our time, but we know we are called to something greater. As difficult as it may be, we keep giving of ourselves because we know it is the right thing to do. There is an exhaustion, but there is also something very satisfying in acknowledging the work we have done.

This is not meant to be a complaint. I'm not saying life should be a stroll in the park. Good building on good is how God's kingdom will be built. Sacrifice is often part of the journey. It takes a deep desire and commitment to remain on track in our journey. God will give us strength for the journey. We are called to the Eucharistic table to be fed by our Lord. We are reminded that Jesus Himself embodies the image of giving one's life away. He died on the cross. May we pray for the wisdom that each of us embraces the part of God's mission He has offered us. Together His kingdom is built, and the glory of God is revealed.

"Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

– Matthew 11:28

HOLY CROSS BEREAVEMENT

Circle of Friends

Wednesday, November 18th , from 1:30PM to 3:00PM in the Father Joe Room

Please join us for our new monthly Bereavement gathering, "Circle of Friends," which offers support and connection to those who have suffered a loss of a loved one in the past year(s) and are still struggling.

This is a less structured meeting where we gather to discuss new life issues that you are experiencing, helping you to navigate new challenges that may arise after the loss of your loved one in a safe and supportive environment.

The group is not therapy but simply a group of people who have experienced loss and who may need extra support at this time. Topics vary but the main focus is the needs and experiences of the group.

Our meeting will be on Wednesday, November 18th, from 1:30pm to 3:00pm in the Father Joe Room.

If you have any questions, please contact Outreach at 631-265-2200. To attend, please call the Outreach office at 631-265-2200 by November 16th. Come and share, pray and make new connections!

Christmas Outreach Elves Needed

Outreach is looking for a few "Christmas Elves" to help sort and organize the Christmas Angel Gifts after all the Masses on the following weekends:

November 28-29, and December 5-6.

If you are interested, please call Kelley in the Outreach office at 631-265-2200, ext. 113

Thank you!

Be an Angel this Christmas!

ANGEL TAGS are available next weekend, Nov. 21 & 22, in the COLOR–CODED baskets in the Atrium

BLUE — Families of the Holy Cross Outreach Program

Once again, we are requesting gift cards for both clothing and toys for the households in our area that Outreach assists.
Therefore, the BLUE TAGS have requests for a store gift card on them.
We encourage you to consider providing a holiday gift card so that our neighbors are able to purchase the items that best fulfill their family's needs.

RED — Our friends at Olsen's Rest Home

The RED TAGS have a gift listed on the tag, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift, just attach the angel tag to the top of the package.

PURPLE — Talbot House – the Catholic Charities crisis center for those struggling with addiction

The PURPLE TAGS have a request for a store gift card, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift card, just attach the angel tag to the gift card when dropping off.

GREEN — Items for children in the Brentwood area serviced by Pronto

The GREEN TAGS have a request for sweatshirts and sweatpants, for children ages 5 to 17, but please DO NOT WRAP the item, just attach the angel tag to the item when dropping off.

ORANGE — Mercy Haven – an organization that provides community residence housing for those living with mental illness

The ORANGE TAGS have a request for a store gift card, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift card, just attach the angel tag to the gift card when dropping off.

PINK — Supermarket cards will enable a family to have a special meal, gas cards allow for a family to visit doctors, and drugstore cards allow a family to buy medicine.

When you purchase a gift card, please put the gift amount on the gift card or the envelope.

This information is needed so parish outreach can distribute the cards equally.

Please put the gift card in an envelope and place it in the GIFT BOX on the table near our Angel signs.

Please do not wrap gift items or gift cards.

This makes it easier on sorting day to count and distribute to the agencies.

Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Gifts and gift cards can be returned on the weekends at Mass or dropped off during the week at the Parish Office.

PLEASE NOTE· Sunday, December 6th, is the last day to return gifts and gift cards.

Many thanks to our Holy Cross Angels who give so generously each year to make our Angel Program successful!

FAITH & WORKS

Practice of Faith

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2026")

Today's Gospel is a multifaceted and somewhat difficult pill to swallow. It is a reminder to invest well what we have been given in grace. It is a challenge to be faithful in small things as well as big things, but it is also a painful reminder of what happens when we operate out of fear. The servant who hides the singular talent does so, not in prudence, but out of fear of the master, and thus squanders an opportunity to be faithful. The repercussions are scorching.

In prayer, consider the gifts that God has given you. How are you being called to use them? Where can your gifts be especially engaged to bring about the Kingdom of God?

This week, practice faithfulness in small things, not in grand gestures. Take note of the impact it has on you.

Consider a time when you have acted not out of faithfulness, but out of fear. What was the outcome? How could you approach a similar situation differently?
