DISCERNING HOPE (PART 2)

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

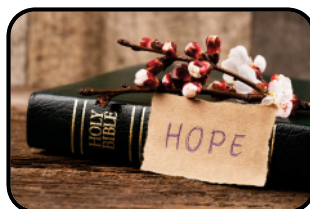

We have been focusing on the theme of being a person of hope. Can we embrace this even in the midst of the challenges of life? Can we allow the ominous “deep waters” that can surround us to be transformed into “living waters of hope”? These are important questions to grapple with in the midst of our own spiritual journeys. But there is an added dimension when we know we are not alone. We share this journey with others.

Over the past few years, we have invited parishioners to participate in creating part of the environment used at Mass. On several occasions we asked you to write the names of loved ones or prayer intentions on a white cloth which then served as both an altar cloth as well as being draped over our cross. Parishioners have expressed appreciation in seeing the way the cloth has been used and recognizing their personal connection to it. We are once again doing that as we move into Lent in preparation for Easter.

Several weeks ago, we hung a blue cloth in the sanctuary which mirrored a wave. The cloth that was hung on that weekend coincided with the reading of the gospel that invites the disciples to put out into deep water. These weeks we have asked you to write on that cloth your “prayer for hope.” Where and how do you need to trust in the power of God’s grace to lead and embrace you? We don’t hang our lives on magical wishes but rather on the sure knowledge that God journeys with us. Hope endures even if we are facing an outcome that may be different than what we asked for. As a sign of our collective prayer to share in this presence of God, this cloth will be used in a few weeks as part of our Easter environment.

Lent can truly be a powerful and meaningful time. There is something that touches the hearts of so many people by the gesture of being signed with ashes. That simple ritual identifies the need in all of our lives to face our temptations, our sinfulness, our mortality, etc. Traditionally, people “give up” something for the days of Lent. That might be helpful, but it can also remain a somewhat superficial gesture. If we are honest, we can identify parts of our spiritual lives that need attention. If we fully listen, there are parts of the gospel that challenge everyone. If we look intently, we can see suffering and brokenness that prompt us to action. For the first disciples, when they put their nets into deep water, it opened the door for them to walk a different path of life. We are called to have that same openness so that we can know the love of the Lord more deeply. Then in turn, we reflect the love of God in how we live our lives.

We hope that writing your prayer of hope on the blue cloth will be meaningful for you. We pray that this season of Lent be a holy and prayerful time. With all the challenges that surround us, the gift of hope is the one thing that can enable us to move forward with peace and confidence. Our God is with us.

COMING SOON – ASH WEDNESDAY

LITURGY BYTES by Michele Hall

As we plowed through February, we awaken to a new month – March – and the dawning of the season of Lent which begins this Wednesday, March 5th. Every year on Ash Wednesday, we are amazed by the number of people coming to be reminded to turn away from sin and to be faithful to the Gospel as the ashes are placed on their foreheads.

Because we are engaged in a Jubilee Year, began by Pope Francis right after Christmas, our Lenten prayer will be focusing on hope. Our hope has always been that God's presence in our world would restore justice to a broken world. It is God's desire for justice, a more just society in which all households could not only survive but thrive together in peace and wellbeing. Granted, this is our wish for ourselves and for our neighbors, but sometimes it is most difficult to see that in today's world or even in our own families. Lent gives us the opportunity to renew our hope and open our hearts to God's love.

How will you address being a "pilgrim of hope" this Lent? Will it be through additional prayers, giving to the poor, or giving up something you enjoy? As you are marked with a sign of faith on your forehead, just like at your Baptism, think about that cross that is visible to others. Our ashes remind us that we are ambassadors for Christ, serving as His witnesses. Would others recognize Christ within us even when the ashes are no longer there? Together we begin this journey preparing for Easter, working towards being a light to the nations. May we reawaken our hope this Lent.

Have a healthy, prayerful, and blessed week ahead!

For the Ride Home..... a Gospel Reflection for adults

What did you hear today in the Scriptures?

- What relationships bring you closer to God? What fruits do they bear that help you in life?
- Do you think there are "fruits" God is asking you to embrace in your life?

Gospel Reflection for our young people

- How can we make sure our lives are filled with God's love and goodness?
- What gives us special nourishment at Mass so we can be close to Jesus?

Ash Wednesday is March 5th.

Ashes will be distributed at 7 AM, 9 AM Mass, 12 Noon,
4 PM, 5:30 PM & 7 PM.

Children and Ashes...

Our 4 PM and 5:30 PM services will be more "child friendly."

These services will be shorter, with a homily geared to a child's understanding. This will enable the children to enter into the spirit of Lent in a manner appropriate for their age.

Fast and Abstinence

All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

anyone dealing with grief.*

All are welcome.

We will meet for six (6) consecutive Wednesdays.

The dates for the Spring session are as follows:

April 2, 9, 16, 23, 30 & May 7

from 1:30PM - 3:30PM in the Fr. Joe Room.

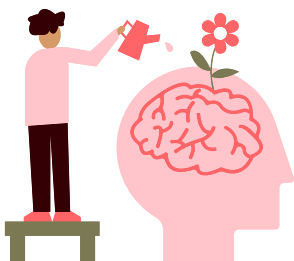

*Losing a loved one is painful for anyone. How we cope is as unique as our fingerprints.
It can be experienced as losing the ability to see the beautiful colors in a rainbow.
Our world seems so grey.*

Making the time to listen to others dealing with grief enables us to begin to see the colors of life once again. This also allows us to share our stories and gain ways to move forward.
Come and join us as we work together and share this journey.

*If you are interested in joining or have any questions, please call Outreach at 631-265-2200.
All who will be attending will be asked to complete a registration form.*

The last day to RSVP is April 1st.

Memory is important for many everyday tasks including those involved in managing one's daily tasks, keeping appointments, and in interactions with others. However, memory abilities are known to change across the lifespan. Because memory is so central to everyday life, people are often interested in learning how to implement strategies and/or activities that might serve to improve memory performance. In this talk, attendees will learn about how memory works, how it changes across the lifespan, and how other thinking processes are involved in the formation and retrieval of memories. Strategies and activities that one might implement to improve performance of memory-based activities will be discussed.

"Let us ask ourselves: do I look the other way when I see the poverty, the needs, or the pain of others?"

-Pope Francis

The Catholic Ministries Appeal helps to spread the Faith, hope and love to all our brothers and sisters across Long Island.

The 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) is already underway. This annual appeal raises money for the various ministries in our Diocese. Money raised for the Appeal assists single mothers, the hungry, the poor and the broken through Catholic Charities and parish outreach programs.

The Appeal helps bring our youth and young adults to Christ through our Faith Formation programs and through our summer camp, Quo Vadis—a beautiful faith experience, where young people attend Mass and Eucharistic Adoration with like-minded friends and peers.

All those ministries, and more, benefit from your support of the CMA. Our parish also receives a rebate from the Appeal to help us support our own programs, so please consider making a gift to help us reach goal! No gift is too small, and every gift makes a difference in the lives of others.

Please also remember, 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. No donations are used to fund the bankruptcy settlement.

Thank you!

Practice of Faith

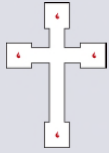

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

At the heart of today's Gospel is a call to live with integrity. To be a person of integrity means there is congruence with who we say we are and what we say and do. Integrity is the antidote to hypocrisy. Lent begins this week. The season of repentance offers an opportunity to look at our lives with honesty and to seek to prune away anything that impairs our ability to live with integrity.

Take today's instructive Gospel to heart. What is within you that produces goodness and kindness and what tears it down?

Ash Wednesday serves as a doorway to a time of intense spiritual preparation leading to Easter and continuing through Pentecost. Make a deliberate plan to cross the threshold into Lent by arranging your calendar to attend Ash Wednesday services.

How is God calling you to journey through Lent? Begin to formulate the ideas about how you will incorporate the spiritual practices of Lent - prayer, fasting, and almsgiving (acts of charity) - into your life throughout the weeks ahead.

Spring Cash Fling

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish.

At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through March, April and May
- Drawing will be held MAY 29TH

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- 1 Prize @ $250
- 2 Prizes @ $100
- 10 Prizes @ $50
- 15 Prizes @ $25

This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each.
If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.

Please cut out and use the tickets below.

You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
