ANYONE HAVE A CORK WE CAN BORROW?

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

We have sprung a leak! At least our baptismal font has. The problem began a few weeks ago. At first, we thought it could be resolved with a little bit of silicone caulking, but that did not do the trick. It has been drained for over a week, and water continues to seep out. It seems there is water trapped within the walls of the font which is slowly working its way out. We don't want to start pulling off the marble exterior panels, so we will wait until it appears to have completely dried out. We will then be regrouting all the joints. We hope that will resolve the issue. As we continue to experience with other parts of the building, everything is 30 years old and more and more items are in need of repair. I pray that the new grout does the trick. I dread the thought of having to rebuild the font. We have a large glass bowl filled with holy water as a temporary replacement. I wonder who is the patron saint of leaky baptismal fonts?

I hear many people say, "The summer is flying by." Call me crazy, but I am enjoying the pace of this summer. This summer has been more of a "staycation" for me than previous years. I don't have much travel planned, so I'm spending lots of time around the house. I try to keep up with yard maintenance around the property which I enjoy. I'm not even complaining (too much) about the days that have been very hot. I hope your summer is going well.

Did you know that historic Route 66 is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2026? I'm looking into how that might become a road trip adventure for the parish. There will be various celebrations and events held along the route over the course of the year. It could be a unique travel experience. I'm just starting to do research, so I am far from announcing any kind of actual trip. As always, I will keep you posted.

Needless to say, this has been a slow news week around here as this column demonstrates. But, in the midst of the silly little things I report, there are serious matters that surround us. As I write this article, the story of this week's NYC shooting is unfolding. There is great ongoing suffering in the Ukraine and Middle East. The immigration issue is causing great fear and turmoil in the lives of many.

We can never lose sight of the pain and anguish that is part of our world. While many of these issues seem far beyond our ability to change, we cannot ignore the trials that many face. At the very least, we hold in prayer those who face the cross in life. Jesus himself had this sense of sadness and helplessness.

As Jesus drew near, he saw the city (Jerusalem) and wept over it, saying, "If this day you only knew what makes for peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes." (Lk. 19:41-42)

Let us continue to pray for courage and wisdom to be at work so that we may strive to allow the Kingdom of God to be known here and now.

Bring your grandchildren to Mass or Grandchildren, bring your Grandparents with

Pray together, receive Jesus together and Celebrate our Faith!

Holy Cross Parish celebrates Grandparents' Weekend WEEKEND OF SEPTEMBER 6/7

Gather up those special people we call grandchildren and come to Mass together that weekend, or grandchildren, invite your grandparents to Mass here at Holy Cross.

A special blessing will be given at all the Masses.

Hospitality will be offered after the 11.30 Mass.

In the meantime, we are inviting grandparents to write in two sentences or less what being a grandparent means to them.

Write on the slip below and drop it in the box outside the parish office.

Please submit by August 25th.

Naturally, we all might want to write more than two sentences, but try to sum up those feelings as best you can.

On the weekend of September 6/7, your submissions will appear in the bulletin.

Together, let us celebrate the honor of being a grandparent and our grandchildren (both adult and children) who we hold in our hearts.

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Practice of Charity

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

Everyone knows the saying, "You can't take it with you." The joke is that so many of us act as if we can. Today's Gospel, especially in combination with the first reading, is an urgent reminder that those things we labored so hard to attain are meaningless in the eyes of God. In fact, Jesus calls that person a fool who loses sight of what truly matters to God. We are newly made, says St. Paul, and what matters is our being in Christ.

Read the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-12 or Luke 6:20-26), the list of the attributes that God values.

Pray for discernment regarding the type of treasure you are storing up and whether you are rich in God's sight.

Forgo a planned purchase or luxury and give that money to your local food bank or homeless shelter.

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish.

At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- Tickets are available for purchase through June, July and August
- Drawing will be held AUGUST 28TH

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- 1 Prize @ $250
- 2 Prizes @ $100
- 10 Prizes @ $50
- 15 Prizes @ $25

This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each.
If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.

Please cut out and use the tickets below.

You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
