IT'S A DRY HEAT

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

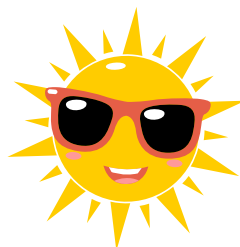

As you read this column I will be in one of my favorite corners of the world, Phoenix. Yeah, Arizona can be crazy hot in the summer, but there is truth to the expression of it being a "dry heat." The humidity is low so that it remains reasonably comfortable even when the temperature is in the high 90s. As a side note, this combination of high heat and low humidity creates an unusual phenomenon. When I get out of the pool on a scorching hot day, I suddenly feel cold. I have asked Sr. Marie and other friends who are science teachers, and they say the reason for this is evaporation. The humidity is so low that any moisture is quickly absorbed into the air. The warm dry air draws the water so quickly away from the skin that it is also drawing surface body heat away, and the result is feeling cold. In a minute or so things balance themselves out, but it is an odd experience to be shivering when it is 102 degrees.

Much to my surprise, as life goes on, I find I enjoy the warmer temperatures more and more. At one point in time I was an avid skier. I wouldn't think twice about heading out on the coldest of days to be the first one on the slopes. Now it is the thought of warmth and sunshine that makes me smile. It would be a dream that at some point I could become a snowbird with my second home being in the Southwest. It's nice to dream, but I enjoy these opportunities when they come along now.

While I am away I enjoy attending Sunday Mass. It's a good thing for me to sit in the "peanut gallery" every once in a while. It is a different perspective that allows me to experience the liturgy in a different way. As you know, it is a different perspective sitting in the pew. I enjoy walking into a new church and getting a feel for the parish. I look around and try to breathe in the life and energy of that community. Of course, we are always united by the presence of Christ in the Eucharist, but the context in which it is celebrated makes an enormous difference. Music, environment of the worship area, prepared and reverent ministers, and preaching, all play a vital role. I have had some very rich and prayerful times. I have had moments where I felt disengaged and more of an observer than a participant. Whatever experiences I have on the road, it is always a blessing to come back to Holy Cross. As for many of you, this is my spiritual home and it always feels good to come back.

Thank you to Fr. Mickey Bancroft for covering the weekend Masses while I am away. I appreciate his willingness to help. It is also good that you hear the gospel proclaimed with a different voice and different perspective.

For those involved in education, these are likely the final days before the routine of your life makes a dramatic shift. I hope the days of summer were relaxing and renewing for you. The change of seasons will once again be upon us. Fear not, summer will return. But don't worry, it's a dry heat. 😊

HOLY CROSS BEREAVEMENT

When Your Journey Continues

We will begin our 4 consecutive week program
starting on Wednesday, September 3rd,
from 1:30-3:00PM
in the Father Joe Room.

We are starting a bereavement group for those who may be further in their grief journey but who are still struggling with an unresolved loss.

This group is NOT for newly bereaved. Our next newly bereaved support group will begin in November.

If you are struggling and do not feel you have made much progress, please consider joining the support group. The group will focus on helping you understand the grief process and your own individual reaction to loss. By learning coping strategies, you will be able to manage your grief better and begin the critical process of adjusting to living in a world without the deceased. The group is not therapy but simply a discussion group where you will meet other people who have also suffered a loss. Through sharing life experiences, you can learn from one another which will help in your grief journey.

Space is limited, so if you are interested in joining, please contact Kelley Mowat at the Outreach office by calling 631-265-2200 or by email at Outreach@holycrossrc.org. If interested, please contact Kelley as soon as possible.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

RCIA/OCIA

WHAT IS RCIA/OCIA?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), recently renamed OCIA, or Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the process by which adults are welcomed into the Catholic Church.

If you know someone who might be interested in OCIA, please pass this information along.

If you wish to participate in OCIA, or if you have any questions about it, please contact Jude at (631) 265-2200 x116 or jpickel@holycrossrc.org

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

OCIA is open to:

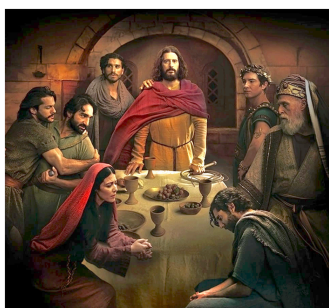

- anyone who is unbaptized and has a desire to learn about the Catholic faith;
- anyone who was baptized in another Christian denomination and wishes to explore membership in the Catholic Church;
- Catholics who have been baptized but have not celebrated the Sacraments of Eucharist (Holy Communion) and Confirmation.

WHAT CAN ONE EXPECT AT OCIA?

Individuals who go through the OCIA process can expect:

- to know themselves and God better,
- to be supported in prayer by the entire parish community, and
- to understand Catholic teachings and practices more clearly.

All that is required is openness to grow and learn.

PRAYER, ACTION & COMMUNITY

A BACK-TO-SCHOOL PRAYER

Loving God, thank you for the rest and relaxation we enjoyed over the summer.

Today, we pray for our children as they begin their new school year.

Bless them with joy at seeing friends, excitement at new experiences, and a love of learning. Watch over all who learn, replacing fear with joy, anxiety with peace, and tiredness with energy.

Grant teachers wisdom, patience, and joy in serving their students.

In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen.

We grow together in faith.

Practice of Charity

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

Jesus uses a rule of etiquette to demonstrate a rule of God: only the truly humble have a place in God's kingdom. The dictates of today's Gospel are simple. As Christians, we are called to give freely, as God does, to those who cannot possibly repay the kindness; to give alms, to invite the poor and the marginalized into our lives.

Study the online Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraphs 2444 and 2448, to learn more about the Church's preferential love for the poor.

At every family dinner, pray especially for the poor.

Contact your local refugee organization and inquire about inviting a refugee family in your community to your home for a meal.
