A SACRAMENTAL TSUNAMI

by Father Michael

This weekend begins what I am sure will be a hectic, exhausting, but life-giving week here at Holy Cross. On Saturday we had our first two First Holy Communion celebrations. Next Saturday we have our final two. On Monday, Bishop Romero, who is one of the auxiliary bishops of our diocese, will be visiting to celebrate Confirmation for 130 of our young people. In addition to all these special celebrations, we also have our usual array of daily and weekend Masses and Confessions. On Saturday is our monthly Holy Hour. Sunday is the regularly scheduled Anointing of the Sick and Baptisms. The past few weeks have been unusually slow for funerals, so we will probably get a few of those as well. The pews will not even have a chance to cool off this week from all the use they will get.

It is impossible to get through a week like this without the support and commitment of our Pastoral Team, Staff, and countless dedicated parish ministers. For some, the journey has been years as catechists teaching the same group of children from First Communion all the way through to Confirmation. For others, it was a few hours of outdoor work to beautify the courtyard for these special occasions. Whatever the contribution, I thank all those who lend a helping hand for these important moments in the lives of our parishioners.

Some good news is that I got the squirrel out of my attic. I thought for certain there were several who moved in, but it was determined to be just one. The pest control company was able to capture him and move him to a different location. The entrance into the attic now has a temporary patch on it. Is there anyone out there good at replacing siding as well as some pieces of vinyl soffit? I would love to have a chitchat with you. The bad news is that as quickly as the squirrel went away, I am now dealing with at least one mouse in the house. I have my have-aheart trap set. So far, I caught one who I moved to greener pastures. I'm not sure if there are more. Who knows who will move in next week?

We have not been able to livestream since April 22. We are not sure what the difficulty is, but it appears that the Facebook format is no longer cooperating. We understand there are some at home who appreciate this connection to the parish as they are unable to otherwise attend. We are considering other options such as creating our own YouTube channel. While we are trying our best to resolve the situation, it will not likely be addressed for another few weeks until we can schedule a time when those who know about these things are able to get together. I'm sorry for the inconvenience.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place after the 9:30 Mass.

LITURGY BYTES

Importance of the Eucharist

With the beginning of First Holy Communion celebrations here at Holy Cross, I thought a few reflective thoughts about the greatest gift we have been given would be in order.

The bishops of the United States created a three-year plan to revive and foster Eucharistic devotion in the hearts of us, the faithful. Believing in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist is what makes Catholics different from other Christians. At Mass, the bread and wine are truly transformed into Christ's Body and Blood. We call this the Real Presence. There is absolutely no doubt that Jesus is present under the forms of bread and wine. The bread and wine ARE NOT symbols. Each week we have the opportunity to receive Jesus at Mass. The Mass is the summit and source of the Christian life. Yet, you and I both know many have fallen away from joining us at Mass on weekends. Why?

Because of COVID, some drifted away and were satisfied watching the livestream at home. For a short period, this was welcomed, and many felt it was better than nothing. However, just sitting and watching seems empty without the experience of coming forth to receive Jesus in your hands. Even those who are homebound have the opportunity to receive Our Lord at least once a week, thanks to those Eucharistic Ministers who serve our parish's homebound. I am certain there are many others, not homebound, who continue to remain at home instead of attending Mass in person. If you know someone who is homebound because of illness or age and would like to receive Our Lord, please contact the Outreach office. We have many Eucharistic Ministers who would be happy to bring that person Communion each week. Also, for those who might wish to serve as a Eucharistic Minister for the weekend Masses, we always need your assistance. Think about it and be sure to speak to Fr. Michael.

Have a blessed, thankful, and healthy week ahead! ~~ Michele Hall

The Mystics

On May 13th, 20th and June 3rd at 1:30 or 7 PM we will be discussing three male mystics. Come join us to listen and discuss St. John of the Cross, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, and Thomas Merton.

REKINDLE YOUR LOVE OF THE EUCHARIST....

In late May, both New York and Brooklyn will be having Eucharistic processions throughout their Dioceses. Click below for specific information.

- Archdiocese of New York May 22 May 26, 2024

 Overview: Catan Pouts, Archdiagons of New York: Blackthown: Event
- Overview: Seton Route Archdiocese of New York: Blackthorn: Events
- Diocese of Brooklyn May 26 May 27, 2024

 Overview: Seton Route Diocese of Brooklyn: Blackthorn: Events

Locally for us, on Memorial Day weekend, you will have the opportunity to participate in the processions for our region. If you are interested in experiencing a part of the processions, click on the links highlighted above to register and receive further information. A segment of the procession will leave the archdiocese of New York, via the Brooklyn Bridge and connect with a parish in the Brooklyn diocese. Wouldn't that be a beautiful experience as the Eucharist is carried over the bridge?

In fact, throughout the United States, these pilgrimages will be happening ending with a Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis in the month of July. Check out the website for more information:

A HOLY SPIRIT NOVENA

In Acts of the Apostles (Acts 1:14), St. Luke writes of the first Novena (nine days). Mary and the disciples prayed while awaiting the Holy Spirit. Together, the Parish Community of the Holy Cross beginning on Ascension Thursday (May 9), will pray each day leading up to Pentecost weekend. We will pray for a new outpouring of the 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit on our families and our parish community. Each gift is accompanied by a prayer to be said at home. Let us pray also for our country and our world.

Adapted from "Come with Your Grace," Praying for the Gifts of the Holy Spirit,
Pentecost Reflections by Mitch Finley

May 9 - Wisdom

Come Holy Spirit, fill us with the clear light of your Wisdom. Help us to pray for what we need to follow Jesus faithfully. Help us to use the gift of Wisdom to serve one another. Help us to see that Wisdom is a gift to all those you have gathered, not just a few. Give us the Wisdom to embrace the truth wherever we may find it. Amen.

May 10 - Understanding

Come Holy Spirit, make alive in us the gift of Understanding, that we may grasp how immeasurable is your love for us, for the earth, for all creatures. Help us to understand how we might better live our faith in our ordinary, everyday lives. Guide us as we struggle with the difficult moral and spiritual issues of our time. Amen.

May 11 - Counsel - Discernment

Come Holy Spirit, nourish in our hearts the gift of Counsel, that we may know when to speak and when to be silent. By your gift of Counsel, strengthen in us our ability to advise and guide one another, as we respond to your guidance in our lives. Help us, as a community of faith, to Counsel our society in ways of love, not condemnation. Amen.

May 12 - Fortitude - Courage

Come Holy Spirit, fill us anew with your gift of Courage. Help us to see that life's sufferings and troubles are temporary. Help us always to see the light at the end of the tunnel. By your gift of Courage, may we face each new day with determination to act in all things with love. Amen.

May 13 - Knowledge

Come Holy Spirit, increase in us your gift of Knowledge, that we may know you more intimately. Help us to see more clearly what to believe and what not to believe. We live in such a complex time! When our limited human knowledge reveals so many gray areas between right and wrong, help us to recognize how you would have us act so that our behavior may show forth your infinite love. Amen.

May 14 - Piety - Reverence

Come Holy Spirit, renew in us your gift of Reverence that we might treat one another with honor and respect. In our homes, help us to be respectful toward one another. In our relationships at work and with people we don't know, help us to show respect. Help us, above all, to have a faith that is deeply reverent. Amen.

May 15 - Fear of the Lord - Wonder and Awe in God's Presence Come Holy Spirit, increase in us the gift of Wonder and Awe in your Presence. Help us to see with the eyes of faith God's tremendous love for us. Through this gift, deepen the spirit of prayer in our lives, and help us to share more generously our time, talent and treasure. Amen.

May 16 - The Home Church

Come Holy Spirit, bring a new birth to the families that make up our parish community. Heal and renew marriages, parent-child relationships, and all the human intimacy that constitutes family life. Help family members feel God's love for them through their love for one another. Amen.

May 17 - The Parish Church

Come Holy Spirit, open our hearts to receive and use the gifts of the Holy Spirit in our parish. Help us to see and respond to the needs of all people. Help us to support and encourage the variety of gifts found in our parish. Above all, help us all to be the Body of Christ in the world. Amen.

Spring Cash Fling

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish. At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through March, April and May.
- Drawing will be held May 30th.

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- * 1 Prize @ $250
- * 2 Prizes @ $100
- * 10 Prizes @ $50
- * 15 Prizes @ $25

- This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each. If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.
- Please use the tear-off tickets below. You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
