I SHOULD HAVE MADE A LEFT IN ALBUQUERQUE

by Father Michael

The title of this article is a quote that is used throughout the Bugs Bunny cartoon series. Our little rabbit friend would say these words whenever he found himself lost or looking at a roadmap. It seemed like an appropriate title for this week's article.

I am not a great reader. I wish I were. Once I get started on a good book, I enjoy it. But sitting down to read is rarely on the top of my list of fun things to do. Recently, someone gave me a series of novels by Rudolfo Anaya. The reason he gave them to me is that the author builds each of his stories around a location somewhere in the Southwest, mostly in New Mexico. As I have a love for this corner of the world, he thought I might appreciate the stories.

The first book that I picked up is entitled Albuquerque. I am about halfway through the book. The story itself is mildly interesting, and I have not given up yet. But what I love about reading the story is he continually makes references to different places in Albuquerque: street corners, churches, neighborhoods, etc. While I am not an expert in knowing every corner of that city, I know it enough to recognize what he refers to.

My first visit to New Mexico was in the mid 90s. I went there to participate in several men's retreats led by Fr. Richard Rohr. I would always add an extra day at the beginning or end of the retreat to explore on my own. Those retreats were some of the richest experiences of my life. In some ways, I truly was changed by the time I spent in the "Land of Enchantment."

As I worked my way through the novel, Rudolfo Anaya described the setting sun hitting Sandia Peak as the backdrop to one scene of his story. The words he used made me feel as though I was once again standing there. It was an experience of being brought back to a place that was a life-giving and joyful moment. The Spirit can beautifully transport us through our memories to very profound places in our lives.

When I first made those retreats, I thought it was a good investment of time and energy. I never realized how defining it would be. It's an amazing experience when we are given the ability to see how pieces of our life fit together. It is a gift when we can look back on our life and have tremendous gratitude for the path God has given us to walk. I'm grateful I chose to make that trip so many years ago. I am humbled by how powerfully God used that opportunity. Some memories can last a lifetime. And sometimes it takes a lifetime to appreciate the big picture: a big world, one tiny person, and a benevolent God who makes it all work in wondrous ways. How blessed we are when we have insight into this great journey called life.

Trinity Sunday

The first Sunday following Pentecost, the Church celebrates the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. Initially, this feast was not celebrated after Pentecost and took a few centuries to find its place onto the Church's calendar.

After the feast of Pentecost, the Church continues to meditate on the great mystery of God through the feast of Trinity Sunday. Another interesting point about this feast is that it is one of the few celebrations of the Christian year that commemorates a reality and doctrine rather than an event or person.

Trinity Sunday is a solemn celebration of the belief in the revelation of one God, yet three divine persons. According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, initially this Sunday had no specific focus or theme. There was, at that time, no particular feast celebrating the Trinity, but soon enough the need arose for the Church to add it. A heresy known as the Arian heresy began to spread in the 4th century, disputing the traditional Christian belief of one God in three divine persons. The bishops of the Church decided to compose a Mass in honor of the Trinity to reaffirm the belief, but it was not given a specific date on the calendar. By the 8th and 9th centuries, the Church found the perfect place. My old Sunday missal explains why Sunday is a fitting day for this feast in these words: "Sunday is consecrated throughout the year to the Holy Trinity because God the Father began the work of creation on the first day, the Son made man rose from the dead on a Sunday morning, and the Holy Spirit came down on the Apostles on Pentecost Sunday."

Celebrating the Trinity after Pentecost allows the Church to reflect on the mystery of God after receiving the gift of the Spirit. This helps us see the connection that if we truly want to understand the Trinity, we need to have the gift of the Holy Spirit. We can never fully understand who God is on our own and need his guidance and inspiration.

Have a spirit-filled, blessed, safe and healthy week!~Michele Hall

Dress a Girl Around the World

Cut-Ups: (those who cut the material and assemble our dress kits)

Our "Cut-Ups" will meet Thursday, June 30th, from 1PM-3PM in the atrium. We will continue cutting out dresses for the little ones in need. Please RSVP to Outreach at 631-265-2200 (limited space available). No skill required. All are welcome!

At our last couple of meetings, our Cut-Ups assembled over 100 dress kits for Stitch-Ups to take home and create dresses for young girls. So far this year we have received over 140 completed dresses from our Stitch-Ups which will be shipped to Haiti this summer. Thank you to all those who have donated material. You have made all this possible with your generosity. At this time, we are looking for 1½ yards of fabric which make one small dress, 2 yards which make one medium dress, or 3 yards which make two medium dresses. All remnants are used to make the pockets and bindings for the dresses. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Stitch-Ups: (those who sew the dresses found in our dress kits)

Our "Stitch-Ups" are welcome to pick up completed dress kits by calling the Outreach Office at 631-265-2200. Everything you need to complete a dress is included in a kit including instructions. Any questions—we are just a phone call away! Thank you!

Friendly Calls

What are Friendly Calls?

Friendly calls provide a simple check-in and friendly phone call to seniors/parishioners who are homebound, feeling lonely and/or isolated. This program helps seniors/parishioners who are trying to remain independent with phone calls during the week to check on their mental, spiritual, and physical wellbeing. Getting regular friendly calls can be a real boost for someone who is lonely.

Your concern, time and compassion are the foundation of this program. Do you have a few minutes a week to share a conversation with a senior/parishioner who may be homebound and feeling isolated? If yes, please call the Outreach office at 631-265-2200 x113 to become a volunteer. All volunteers must be VIRTUS certified and sign a confidentiality form.

Who is Eligible for a Call?

Would you like to receive a call from a parishioner volunteer while you are homebound? Individuals may self refer or be referred by a caregiver or family member. This program is intended to serve seniors/parishioners who are homebound, living alone or otherwise need regular contact to eliminate social isolation. If you are interested in receiving a call, please call Outreach at 631-265-2200 x113. All calls are confidential.

These are the Numbers for the Month of May

In the month of May, Outreach served 71 households consisting of 30 children, 69 adults and 26 Seniors for a total of 125 people.

This is all possible due to your generous support. Thank you!

YOUTH MINISTRY

Hello everyone! Are you in high school? Do you want to make new friends as you play fun games? Do you want to build more of an understanding about yourself and your faith? If you answered "Yes!" to any of those questions, and you have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, then you MUST check out the Holy Cross Youth Group! If you are thinking about joining us and would like more information, please contact Allie Roecklein, Coordinator of Youth Ministries, at youthgroup@holycrossrc.org or call the parish office. We will be having our end of the year party to celebrate our graduates on June 12 from 6-8 PM in the atrium!

Little Flower Child & Family Services (Wading River)

Due to financial impacts of Covid and supply chain issues over the last 2 years, hygiene supplies have been difficult to get. Eagle Scout candidate Michael Fallon invites you to help in his effort to stock up and supply a brand new “Hygiene Pantry” for male residents. This pantry will cater to children ages 7-21 in residence at Little Flower, some with disabilities and some without.

For this collection, specifically for males, the following items are needed.

General Supplies:

Toothbrushes / Toothpaste
Cotton Balls / Q-Tips
Bath Towels (washcloths, floor towels, bath towels)
Hand Sanitizer
Body Wash / Soap /
Shampoo / Conditioner
Moisturizer / Lotion
ChapStick
Acne Products
Hairbrushes / Combs

Male Specific Items:

Men's Shaving Cream
Men's Razors
After Shave / Cologne
Masculine Scented Soaps
Masculine Scented Deodorant
Manicure Set - Clippers /
Nail File
Hair Products - Gels / Oils
Body Lotions / Body Sprays
Mouthwash
Dental Floss

Parishioner Michael Fallon is undertaking this drive for his Eagle Scout project. The collection will take place...

Where: at Parish of the Holy Cross atrium

TAKE A CHANCE!

Summer Cash Sizzle

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine. This fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish. In addition, many parishioners enjoyed participating in it. Unfortunately, it was one of the many parts of parish life that was lost to COVID. At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, and so, we present the “Summer Cash Sizzle.” This is a similar idea, however it is offered on a quarterly basis.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through June, July and August.
- Drawing will be held August 31st.

Because we anticipate smaller participation, there is a different pay scale:

- * 1 Prize @ $250
- * 2 Prizes @ $100
- * 10 Prizes @ $50
- * 15 Prizes @ $25

- This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each. If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased. (In the event the response is strong, we will resume a monthly drawing as soon as possible.)
- Tickets will not be sold after Mass. Please use the tear-off tickets below. You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.

Thank you for your support!
