JUMPING JUNE

by Father Michael

These weeks of June are always full of life and energy. Students are concluding their academic year and preparing for exams. Folks are making plans for vacation. Barbeques are getting a workout this time of the year. This Thursday is the official start of summer as well as the longest day of the year. Even the fireflies are getting into the spirit of the season. Enjoy these wonderful days.

This week's project of the week at my house was replacing an old through-the-wall air conditioner. It was at least twenty-five years old and stopped working last summer. P.C. Richards was fine in installing the new unit, but we were responsible for removing the old unit and preparing the proper sized opening for the replacement. I know these old clunkers can be heavy and that it was not going to be a simple task. But, my heavens, I did not anticipate what was encountered. Roberto, our custodian, was at my house bright and early on Tuesday and he brought two friends to help. The old sleeve was nailed and screwed into the framing of the house in so many places that it became an enormous effort to finally pry it out of its perch. A tornado could have blown the house away, but that air conditioner would have stayed secure. It also had to weigh almost 200 pounds which added to the challenge. In the end, the task was completed.

This Wednesday parish offices will be closed. It is the new Juneteenth holiday. But it is also going to be a Staff Enrichment Day for us here at Holy Cross. Both the Pastoral Team and Staff will be heading out to Cormaria, which is a retreat house located in Sag Harbor. It will be a day of both spiritual reflection as well as some team-building activities that will allow us to enjoy some fun time with each other. It is a privilege and blessing to work with all the good folks here at Holy Cross who are committed to this parish.

Next week there will be something different at Mass. Most of the homily time will be devoted to a "State of the Parish" address. It has been several years since I offered one of these talks. It is always good to review parish life in terms of ministries, finances, needs, goals, challenges, etc. This will be more of a formal presentation. But, informally, over the past few weeks I have encountered more than a few folks who have been singing the praises of Holy Cross. Some of the positive comments came from our Confirmation and First Communion celebrations. Others have gone out of their way to say how grateful they are that Holy Cross is here. People are appreciative of the music, preaching, beauty of our Worship Area, spirit of welcome, etc. Holy Cross is a blessing in many ways to many people. May we never take for granted the good people and good times we share together.

The Parish Office is closed on June 19th, and there will not be Daily Mass.

LITURGY BYTES

Processions

Lately, these past weeks, most of us have either participated in or observed parades whether it be for a holiday or a charity group. Many times, these parades are very elaborate. It certainly is a great community builder. We Catholics appreciate that community building also.

The Church's version of parades is in the form of processions. At Mass, processions are also a part of our prayer experience. Processions mark special times in the liturgical calendar and are a special and powerful sign of our Faith. At the beginning of Mass, we have the Entrance Procession which unites us, focusing our attention on the celebration at hand. The procession always begins with the Cross, the central mystery of our Faith. The Book of the Gospels is also carried in the Entrance Procession, reminding us that it is Christ who speaks when the Gospel is proclaimed. The Presentation of the Gifts happens in the form of a procession which also reminds the assembly that we are to offer ourselves with Christ. In the Communion Procession, as we approach the Lord's table, it signifies unity and communion of us, the faithful, with Christ and with one another. The Final Procession, perhaps, is the most important as members of the assembly leave together but then go their separate ways to bring the Good News to all they may encounter.

The one place processions stand out to me is Holy Week:

- Starting with Palm Sunday, we commemorate the Lord's entrance into Jerusalem.
- At the conclusion of the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, we all process from the Worship Area to another area on Church property where the Blessed Sacrament will be in Reposition.
- On Good Friday, we come forward in procession to venerate the Cross of Christ.
- At the Easter Vigil, we process into a dark Church following the Paschal Candle, the symbol of Our Lord, the light of the world.

Just last weekend we processed at the conclusion of each Mass, led by Fr. Michael and the Blessed Sacrament, to the outside of the Church in celebration of the feast of Corpus Christi. All of the above should remind us that we are a pilgrim people, united with Christ and with one another, as we live out our journey of Faith.

Have a blessed, healthy, and peaceful week ahead! ~ Michele Hall

Due to the tremendous response for our Vacation Bible School Camp, we are no longer taking applications for helpers or campers.

Summer Cash Sizzle

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish. At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through June, July and August.
- Drawing will be held August 29.

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- * 1 Prize @ $250
- * 2 Prizes @ $100
- * 10 Prizes @ $50
- * 15 Prizes @ $25

- This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each. If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.
- Please use the tear-off tickets below. You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.

Thank you for your support!
