WOVEN

by Father Michael

Last week we hung a new tapestry of the Baptism of the Lord over our baptismal font. I don't understand the skill or technology that goes into creating a tapestry, but I do know the image and the material become one. If you try to alter the picture, the fabric itself is ruined. The picture is woven into the very fiber of the tapestry. Friday was the thirty-third anniversary of my ordination to priesthood. Allow me to use that image of "woven" as the foundation for a few thoughts on the occasion of my anniversary.

Over the past few weeks several parishioners have expressed words of gratitude to me for some aspect of my ministry. One occasion was in response to my homily given at a funeral. Another was for what has taken place over the past 15 months. A third was an expression of gratitude for fostering a joyful (and often fun) spirit at Holy Cross. These words came from people with whom I have different relationships: one I knew well, another was a familiar face, and the third was someone I had never met before.

On a human level, it's nice to receive affirmation. But these kind words did more than just inflate my ego. They reminded me of a profound mystery and gift that is at work in priesthood. God's Word and the Sacraments of the Church are keys that can open the hearts of people. They often allow access to very deep and personal places within the soul. To be the one entrusted with these keys is a very humbling and awe-filled position.

Part of the human psyche is the need to be relevant. We all long to make a difference, even if it is just in the life of one other person. I have been blessed in so many ways in this life. I take great satisfaction that I have been able to lead many people on fun adventures to different places around our country and beyond; I like being a tour guide. But to know that I am part of the journey deep into the soul of another goes beyond profound. To be a spiritual tour guide, is a gift beyond measure.

I suspect the tapestry over our font was manufactured rather quickly with some kind of computer driven machinery. My understanding is that a hand-made tapestry takes a very long time to create. That is the more accurate image to use in the relationships we share with one another and with God. I am deeply grateful for the eight years of ministry I have shared with you here at Holy Cross, and I look forward to the years ahead. Thank you for allowing me into your lives. And I am grateful you have become part of mine. It is a profound gift to share faith with one another and realize how much we become part of each other's lives.

We welcome Fr. Jim McNamara this weekend as he celebrates the 11:30 Mass with us!

LITURGY BYTES

Mary, Mother of God

My reflection for today centers on our dear Mother Mary. Way back in the 4th century, St. Ambrose of Milan used a beautiful title for the Blessed Virgin Mary – “MOTHER OF THE CHURCH.” A few years ago, Pope Francis added a new feast to the Roman calendar to be celebrated on the Monday after Pentecost: the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. This year it was celebrated on May 24th.

You might be asking, “What does this title mean?” Simply put, it means that Mary is the Mother of the Church; she is united with her Son. The prayer of the Church is devoted to her, and she is the vision of our future. A very good explanation appears in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (par. 963-975).

By the grace of God, the Virgin Mary is our model of faith and charity. She is our advocate and helper, pointing us always to her Son. Also, through the life-giving waters of Baptism, we are entered into union with the Son of God and Son of Mary.

The Mother of God is not adored. Adoration belongs to God alone. However, she is greatly respected and venerated. We tend to seek her protection for all of our needs. There are a great many devotions to the Blessed Mother, as well as many liturgical feasts throughout the year. Each of these feasts draws us into the mystery of Mary which in turn brings us immediately to the mystery of Christ and the Gospel. For us still here on our earthly pilgrimage, Mary is a sign for us of the certain hope and comfort of heaven. For this week, let us ask how often do we seek Mary’s assistance in our lives.

Have a blessed, safe, and healthy week! ~~Michele Hahn

PARISH OUTREACH

Homebound and Hospitalized

Are you, or someone you know in the parish, homebound or anticipating an operation or treatment for cancer? We in Holy Cross are eager to know in a more personal way our parishioners who are homebound or hospitalized. Often, we do not hear of a person's illness or inability to join us for Sunday Mass. Please call 265-2200 x113 or stop by the office to let Parish Outreach know of these parishioners who are so special to us. We really depend on you.

Parish Outreach sends cards, on behalf of our parish, to those who are ill or hospitalized. Our homebound folks receive friendly telephone calls by Outreach volunteers to keep up the connection and to assess ways the parish can be present to these loved parishioners. At Advent and Easter time a volunteer will visit them and bring a gift from the parish community. Eucharistic Ministers are also available to bring communion to the homebound who desire it.

These are some of the ways Holy Cross reaches out to the homebound and hospitalized. Please help us by contacting Parish Outreach or a member of the Pastoral Team if you know of anyone we can serve in their time of need.

YOU MAY WANT TO...

Consider a donation of Altar Bread and Wine for a week, especially if your request for a date for a Mass has been taken. Your special occasion or loved one's name will be printed in the bulletin.

Or you may want to make a monetary donation to Holy Cross in memory of a loved one or in honor of someone living. We now have a Book of Memorials and a Book of Honorees. Your donation will be used to purchase needed items for our church. Holy Cross has a practice of not engraving names on benches and other items, but your donation will be recorded in the appropriate book for all posterity.

Our Parish Outreach also accepts donations in memory or honor of someone and has lovely cards that you can send.

For more information, please visit or call the Parish Office at 631-265-2200 x122.

WHAT'S NEW?

Summer Cash Sizzle

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine. This fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish. In addition, many parishioners enjoyed participating in it. Unfortunately, it was one of the many parts of parish life that was lost to Covid. At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing. And so, we introduce the "Summer Cash Sizzle." This is a similar idea, however it will be offered initially on a quarterly basis.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through June, July and August.
- Drawing will be held August 30.

Because we anticipate smaller participation, there will be a different pay scale:

- * 1 Prize @ $250
- * 2 Prizes @ $100
- * 10 Prizes @ $50
- * 15 Prizes @ $25

- This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each. If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased. (In the event the response is strong, we will resume a monthly drawing as soon as possible.)
- Tickets will not be sold after Mass. Please use the tear-off tickets below. You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
