Welcome, 2019

by Father Michael

I am happy to report that I welcomed in the New Year by drifting off to sleep before the midnight hour listening to the patter of rain on the roof. Even in my “young and wild days” (of which there were very few), I never got excited about celebrating the New Year. There is a part of me that wishes I had experienced being in Times Square just once for the occasion, but at this point I am pretty certain that ship has sailed.

Well, the Christmas and New Year’s marathon has come to an end. I don’t know about you, but while I enjoy all the festivities and celebrations, I am not sorry to see when they come to an end. You know things are getting crazy when you cannot remember what day of the week it is. After a while, I also find myself overwhelmed with abundant and lavish meals. I was so happy when I was able to make myself sausage and peppers this week; it was about all I could handle.

Thank you to all who assisted with our Christmas celebrations. It takes many helping hands to accommodate all those who come to our many Christmas Masses. As always, our church looks beautiful with wreaths and poinsettias decorating our Worship Area. We once again have our beautiful creche displayed in the atrium. The platform it rests on looks like a simple enough structure. In fact, it is quite complicated to figure out how the many pieces fit together. This year it was an extended effort to make it work, but it was accomplished successfully.

One part of our Christmas celebration which could use greater attention is with our ushers or ministers of hospitality. While we always have enough people to assist with the collection, there is a need at some of the Masses for directing the many people who attend. I was particularly aware of some handicapped visitors who had to search out seats on their own. We are a parish that has always had the reputation of creating a spirit of welcome. On these busier days, there may be a need for us to be particularly attentive to those who may need additional assistance. Perhaps we can put that on our next Christmas list.

I am delighted with the new kitchen at the parish house. Although, once that project was started I also began taking down wall paper and painting the adjacent dining and living rooms. I never realized how much work is involved in painting a few walls and doors. The novelty of painting is wearing thin. But, I hope to finish the bulk of the work by this weekend.

May you be filled with hope and optimism for the New Year. In addition to whatever personal prayers and goals you may have, continue to pray for our Church, our Nation, and all the corners of the world where God’s wisdom, grace, and love are so desperately needed. Happy New Year!

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS!

Help Write Our Prayer

We are familiar with the part of the Mass when petitions are offered. Today it is referred to as the Universal Prayer, although through the years it has also been called the General Intercessions or The Prayer of the Faithful. The prayers that we currently use come about through a variety of ways. Sometimes we write our own. We also have several on-line resources and books that we use in creating the prayers for each week. Additionally, there is a parishioner who assists in writing them.

We are offering the opportunity for parishioners to suggest needs or intentions that could be prayed for at our weekend Masses. Identify issues within our world, nation, community or Church. This would not be the place to mention individual people or private prayers such as “for my cousin, Daisy.” (Our Petition Book in the atrium is available for these special intentions.) Please suggest any prayers you would like to see included in our worship. Keep the following guidelines in mind:

- Be succinct; the prayer needs to be limited to one or two short sentences.
- Normally prayers begin with “For.” For our nation, . . .
- This is not the place for prayers of gratitude. In Thanksgiving for . . .
- Prayers should not include any particular agenda or personal opinion.

Depending on how many requests we receive, we will try to include at least one intention per week. It may be necessary to edit the prayer so that its format is consistent with the other prayers.

Please feel free to use the tear-off below to submit your prayer. These can be mailed back to us or placed in the offertory basket. You may also e-mail us your request to pothc@optonline.net .
