Treasure or Trash?

by Father Michael

I have a shed on the property by my house. One of the items in it is an old Craftsman riding mower. It no longer has the cutting deck attached to it, so it is more of just a small tractor. The engine runs, but we have no use for it here. I was looking into discarding it and was told that what I consider to be trash might be a treasure to someone else. It has a flat tire and a dead battery, but it seems it may still have a useful life to the right person. So, if anyone has use for this machine, it is yours for the asking. (It has low mileage; it was only driven to church on Sundays.)

Two years ago we rented a dumpster and had a parish clean-up day. We may need to do that again this summer to keep the amount of stuff we have in check. It is remarkable how quickly all kind of odds and ends accumulate in our basement, around the garden and at my house. If we get the dumpster, we will need a few helping hands to fill it up.

I often receive some creative and unusual junk mail, as I am sure you do, too. This week I received a solicitation from a real estate company that specializes in selling church properties. They assure me I can get top dollar if I choose to list our church with them. I don't think the bishop or too many other people would be pleased with me if I were to pursue their offer. Don't expect to see a "for sale" sign out on the road anytime soon.

Allow me to offer a belated word of welcome to Mrs. Barbara DeStefano who has joined our office staff. Barbara began a few weeks ago. She now takes care of our checkbook and payroll on a part-time basis. These duties used to fall under the role of Business Manager. Tricia Clarke who served in that capacity is now serving as our Coordinator of Religious Education. We are delighted to welcome Barbara to our staff. In addition to having the qualifications as a bookkeeper, she also comes with experience of working for the Church. This perspective is an important asset to bring. Anyone who is employed here always finds themselves moving beyond their specific job description to serve in a more ministerial capacity.

I began this article talking about treasure or trash. It is a humbling experience when we come to realize that many of the possessions we hold as near and dear to us, really have little value beyond ourselves. I learned this lesson when I was closing up my mom's house. Furniture and other items that I thought collectors would be fighting over ended up being given away or thrown out. I think I watch too many of those shows on TV where people are offered stacks of cash for obscure odds and ends. The value of your treasures is often in the eye of the beholder, so don't be surprised if there are not many others who share your vision.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

July 4, 1776 -
A Free Nation is Born

www.cffor.org

The Great Awakening, a religious revival begun in the 1740s, infused the colonists with a zeal for independence in religious practice as well as government, thus reinforcing the principle of freedom from religious persecution/religious freedom, that brought the first settlers to America.

After nearly a year of trying to resolve their differences with Britain concerning many grievances together with taxation without representation (the colonists had no say in the decisions of the English Parliament even though they were English citizens), in May, 1776, the 13 colonies sent delegates to the Second Continental Congress in Philadelphia. After nearly two months of prayer, discussion and debate, these "Founders" approved the Declaration of Independence, drafted by Thomas Jefferson.

"We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness."

Fascinating Facts for the Fourth:

* The first Declaration of Independence draft presented to Congress blamed King George III for the slave trade, which Jefferson described as "a cruel war against human nature itself." Georgia and South Carolina delegates insisted the passage be removed.

* When told that George Washington would return to private life and not remain in power if the U.S. won the American Revolution, King George III reportedly said, "Then truly he is the world's greatest man."

* Three Founding Fathers and U.S. presidents died on the Fourth of July: Thomas Jefferson & John Adams on July 4, 1826, and James Monroe, July 4, 1831.

* In 1776, 2.5 million new people lived in the U.S. Now, 243 years later, over 300 million people live here.

(courant.com, 7/4/18; computer images.com)

"Freedom is a gift and a personal responsibility. It is a challenge held out to each generation and it must constantly be won over for the sake of the good."

Pope Francis

PARISH REMINDERS

Holy Hour for Peace

We offer our Holy Hour on the first Saturday of the month from 3:45-4:45PM in the Worship Area. The next one will take place on Saturday, July 6th.

Please come and spend some time before the Blessed Sacrament praying for God's gift of peace to touch our wounded world.

Anointing of the Sick

In the past, people received the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick only when they were gravely ill. However, the Church believes that the Anointing of the Sick should be experienced while we are still able to be aware of God's peaceful presence within us.

You are strongly encouraged to receive this Sacrament if you are having upcoming surgery, are dealing with a chronic or debilitating illness, are suffering from addiction, mental health issues or frailty.

On the first Sunday of each month, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is offered after the 9:30 AM Mass. Sunday, July 7th, is the next date the Anointing will be offered.
