Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

My very first group travel trip was in 2000. We visited what is known as the Canyonlands. We began in Phoenix, ended up in Vegas, and in between saw some of the most beautiful works that Mother Nature offers, including Monument Valley. For the Navajo people, this is sacred land. We asked our native guides if we could offer a prayer at one of the stops we made. They said yes, but I think they were a bit apprehensive about what would be done on their sacred land. I read aloud the passage from Exodus that we heard on Sunday. In that passage, God instructs Moses to take off his sandals and feel the holy ground upon which he stood. At the base of a massive sandstone monument, I invited the people in our group to do the same.

Taking off our shoes can give a vastly different perspective. Sometimes something as simple as a quarter inch of shoe leather can keep us insulated from a profound moment of grace. There is a common ground, that is rooted in God, that is offered to all of us to experience. It is difficult to describe, but once you have felt it, you know it is real. It is something universal. It is something eternal. This idea is introduced in the Exodus passage when God tells Moses to report to the people by saying, "I AM sent me to you." Admittedly, this is an awkward phrase that may give pause to understand what is being said. But it is not just random words, it is a profound truth. Later in John's Gospel, Jesus refines those words even more by saying, "I AM."

Normally, when we hear the words "I am," we expect them to be followed by some kind of modifier; I am an American, I am an electrician, I am a good bowler, etc. Once we start adding modifiers, we start narrowing the field and eliminating other possibilities. "I AM" is meant to put us in touch with something that has no boundaries or limitations. It is a reality that is meant to broaden our horizons, to dare to see as God sees. Embracing the phrase "I AM" moves us beyond our heads that like things to be understandable and well defined. It moves us into the heart, which can be frightening because there is always some element of mystery. But this is the only place we can encounter truth. This is the only place we can encounter God.

Back in Monument Valley most of the group took off their shoes. We felt the soft earth beneath our toes. We simply stood there and looked at the beauty that surrounded us. We were enveloped by a profound and, if you will, deafening silence. I don't know if it lasted 30 seconds or 5 minutes. Then one of the ladies in the group began to sing one verse of "Holy Ground." After that I offered a brief blessing. We put on our shoes and silently got back on the little trucks that were driving us through the valley. We were all looking at each other with the expression, "Was it just me, or did something powerful just happen." What a blessing it was; we were literally grounded, stood in silence, and we encountered the Lord.

I don't know if you are supposed to take off your shoes or not. But I do believe we are invited to share in the gift and power of God's holy presence. Lent affords us that opportunity to feel God's mercy, compassion, forgiveness and love. Use well these forty days. Allow yourself to be grounded in God and to know His joy.

Practice of Hope

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

The parable of the patient gardener is a reminder of our potential for growth.

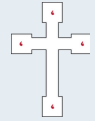

Now at the midpoint of our Lenten journey, reflect on your attentiveness to your Lenten practices and make any necessary adjustments.

Consider Jesus' words about repentance today. What sin hinders you from freely living and sharing your faith?

The Church commemorates the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord on March 25. God announces the Good News in the most unexpected places and through the most unexpected messengers. This week attend to the messengers that God sends to inspire, encourage, and challenge you.

Visit our website at www.holycrossrc.org

we have to offer, how you can be involved,

LENTEN PRAYERS

LITURGY BYTES by Michele Hall

Here's something helpful this week, I hope...some Lenten prayers by saints.
Perhaps you are looking for something different in your prayer life this week.
Maybe one of these will be helpful.

From St. John Neumann

Speak to me, O my God,
let me know your will.
For behold I am ready
to fulfill your every command.
The difficult, the irksome,
I will patiently endure
for love of you.

From St. Peter Canisius

Merciful God,
wash away my faults
and stains
with your precious blood,
and give me the protection
I need to amend my life
and surrender myself
wholly to you.

From St. Padre Pio

Stay with me, Jesus,
for I fear the darkness,
the temptations, the dryness,
the cross, the sorrows.
O how I need you, my Jesus,
in life with all its dangers.

Amen!

Have a blessed, prayerful, and peaceful week ahead!

For the Ride Home..... a Gospel Reflection for adults

What did you hear today in the Scriptures?

- Referring to the first reading today, Moses is called by God to lead Israel out of captivity. What special work do you feel God is calling you to do?
- How can you assist or show support for family and friends who are suffering at this time?
- During this Lenten season, have you thought about the excess fruit that should be pruned away so you can bear greater fruit in your life?

Gospel Reflection for our young people

- What do you think is the message of today's parable about the fruit tree?
- How do you feel to learn that God is always ready to give us another chance?
- Jesus is there to help us to be kind, generous and forgiving. Think about how you use His help with family and friends.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

*Renewed by the Eucharist
Sent on Mission*

Dear Friends:

In announcing the Jubilee Year, Pope Francis asked us to celebrate, “with deep faith, lively hope and active charity.” During this most holy season of Lent, let us be reminded that we are called to discover hope in current times and to be the instruments of hope for others.

One tangible way to accomplish this is by giving to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Through our shared support of our pastoral, educational and charitable ministries, we are assisting those most in need and spreading the message of hope in the Lord.

Your gifts to the Appeal support the education of our seminarians and priests who are dedicating their lives to serving Christ and His Church; assist college students and our young people to grow in their faith and relationship with the Lord; and ensure that vital resources are made available for children and families through Catholic Charities, Respect Life, and our Parish Outreach programs.

During this time of Jubilee in the life of our Church, I ask you to consider contributing to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can enrich the lives of others and that the hope of Christ may abound more fruitfully throughout our diocese.

Thank you for your support and prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Eat Simply...So Others May Simply Eat

EAT SIMPLY IDEAS

Here are some ideas to consider using for your family's participation in our Eat Simply program:

- If you give up sweets for Lent, donate the money saved so that we can purchase cookies and snacks for a family.
- Discuss what a "simple meal" means in your household. Is it soup and bread? Is it a peanut butter and jelly sandwich? Our simple meals can be a gourmet feast for some families struggling to make ends meet.
- Rather than having a Starbucks or Dunkin Donuts coffee, make your morning coffee at home. The money you donate can buy a can of coffee for a family.
- If you are ordering dinner, pick up food instead of using Door Dash / Uber Eats. (Many restaurants have curbside now.) Make a simple dessert for after dinner and donate what it would have cost had you ordered something in.
- Try a plant-based meat alternative. They aren't always a healthier option, but they are gentler on the earth.
- Use the Mercy Meatless Monday's program from the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas to choose alternatives to meat on Mondays and Fridays throughout Lent.

Envelopes are available on the bulletin tables; you may return your envelope in the collection basket. Thank you so much for prayerfully participating in our Eat Simply program, so that others may simply eat!

A Change to the Easter Offering Envelope

Our envelope company decided on their own to change the look of the Easter Flower Offering envelope. They only offer one line for the name of a deceased loved one. We have over the past several years posted the names of both living and deceased loved ones and will continue to do so this year. Please feel free to list on the envelope as many people (both living and deceased) that you wish to be remembered this Easter!

“Let there be Light” Update

The majority of the work was completed successfully and on schedule this past week. We are pleased with the results. There was minimal disruption to parish activities.

◀ Total Cost of Project
$98,200

◀ We have Raised
$44,912

We have reached 45.73% of our goal!

Our Worship Area and the church building are now 30 years old. Components of the original building have reached the end of their useful life, and we need to make some improvements. In October of 2024 the HVAC system was replaced. We are now facing a failure of the lighting system which leaves half of the Worship Area in darkness. It is not simply a matter of changing burned-out bulbs. We need new fixtures and a new control system. Additionally, gaining access to the lights mounted on our high ceilings is not a simple or inexpensive task.

We are grateful to all who have already generously contributed. This is an essential repair, and we deeply appreciate those who have helped in this undertaking.

This is the first major fundraising effort we have had to conduct in more than 15 years. We have been blessed with consistent and generous support by so many parishioners through the years.

Please consider helping us meet our goal.
*Thank you for your kind and generous support.

Spring Cash Fling

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish.

At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through March, April and May
- Drawing will be held MAY 29TH

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- 1 Prize @ $250
- 2 Prizes @ $100
- 10 Prizes @ $50
- 15 Prizes @ $25

This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each.
If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.

Please cut out and use the tickets below.

You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
