ASSORTED NOVEMBER TIDBITS

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

Next Sunday afternoon is going to be an uplifting and engaging afternoon. Brian Reich will be orchestrating a concert featuring our liturgical musicians and singers. All of us have a favorite tune or two that we sing at Mass. A really good song moves our thoughts out of our heads and into our hearts. It speaks a different language that can foster a spirit of prayer that may not happen if we just uttered words. I hope you can join us and bring a friend. The afternoon will begin with a wine and cheese hospitality gathering that will help us settle in. But, please let us know if you plan on attending. We don't want to run out of cheese puffs.

There is a safety improvement we are making to bring to your attention. We will be installing several bollards near the handicap parking spaces in the front of the building. (A bollard is a thick steel pipe, often painted yellow and filled with concrete.) A few weeks ago, we had a car jump the curb, break through the black fence and hit a tree in that area. Unfortunately, the end results were minor injuries and a crunched car. This is the second time an accident like this has occurred during my time here. In both instances, the car came very close to striking the large metal utility box that is located in that area. This box contains the high voltage power lines that energize the entire building. This location has proven to be a potential hazard. We want to avoid more serious consequences should another accident of that nature happen again. The cost of this improvement is $1,000. The money was taken from our Renovations and Major Repairs fund.

There seems to be a new trend forming in celebrating funeral Masses. During October and November, we had about a half dozen funerals where the death of the person took place anywhere from several weeks to several months earlier. The person was cremated and then a Mass was scheduled at a later time. In some cases, this was necessary because family members had to travel a great distance to get here. There does not always seem to be a need to have the services in proximity to the person's death. In a similar light, at one point in time, two and even three-day wakes were the common practice. Most wakes are now one day and, in some instances, one viewing session of 2-3 hours. We always do our best to accommodate these requests and work with families. We recognize there are some aspects of the traditional burial process that seem to be in transition.

We have a group of almost twenty who will be attending the Religious Education Congress in California in February. If there is anyone who is still interested that I have not spoken to, I need to hear from you as I am now making reservations for vans and shuttle buses. I need to make sure I have enough room for everyone who wants to go.

COMMUNION

LITURGY BYTES by Michele Hall

Following the Lamb of God, quiet descends upon this time of the Mass as we prepare to receive Our Lord in the Eucharist. Row by row parishioners approach the altar in lines via the center and side aisles. Music accompanies this ritual too.

As most of us know, this moment is an occasion for personal encounter with the living God. Cyril of Jerusalem said this about our posture coming forward to receive: "So, when you come forward, do not come with an arm extended or fingers parted. Make your left hand a throne for your right since your right hand is about to welcome a King. Cup your palm and receive in it, Christ's body, saying in response, Amen. After partaking of Christ's body, go to receive the chalice of his blood. Do not stretch your hands for it. Bow your head and say Amen to show your homage and reverence."

Even though Cyril mentions receiving with your right hand, those of us who are lefthanded do the opposite of what is said above. Most importantly, when we receive Christ's Body in our hands, we should gently and carefully place it into our mouths.

Some may have noticed a practice called intinction that some of our sisters and brothers do in order to receive under both forms of bread and wine. The US Bishops emphasize this point: "The communicant, including the extraordinary minister, is never allowed to self-communicate, even by means of intinction. Communion under either form, bread, or wine, must always be given by an ordinary or extraordinary minister of Holy Communion."

The beautiful prayers after Communion move us to give thanks for what God has done in giving us his Body and Blood.

O Sacrament, most Holy, O Sacrament Divine, all praise and all thanksgiving, be every moment Thine.

Have a blessed week ahead!

Be an Angel this Christmas!

ANGEL TAGS are available this weekend in the COLOR-CODED baskets in the Atrium and on the marble pillars on the Altar.

BLUE Families of the Holy Cross Outreach Program

Once again, we are requesting gift cards for both clothing and toys for the households in our area that Outreach assists. Therefore, the BLUE TAGS have requests for a store gift card on them. We encourage you to consider providing a holiday gift card so that our neighbors are able to purchase the items that best fulfill their family's needs.

RED Our friends at Olsen's Rest Home

The RED TAGS have a gift listed on the tag, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift, just attach the angel tag to the top of the package.

PURPLE Talbot House - the Catholic Charities crisis center for those struggling with addiction

The PURPLE TAGS have a request for a store gift card. Please attach the angel to the gift card when dropping off.

GREEN Items for teens in the Brentwood area serviced by Pronto

The GREEN TAGS have a gift listed on the tag, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift, just attach the angel tag to the top of the package.

ORANGE Mercy Haven - an organization that provides community residence housing for those living with mental illness

The ORANGE TAGS have a request for a store gift card. Please attach the angel to the gift card when dropping off.

PINK Supermarket cards will enable a family to have a special meal, gas cards allow for a family to visit doctors, and drugstore cards allow a family to buy medicine.

When you purchase a gift card, please put the gift amount on the gift card or the envelope.

This information is needed so parish outreach can distribute the cards equally. Gift cards do not need to be wrapped.

Please put the gift card in an envelope and place it in the GIFT BOX on the table near our Angel signs.

Please do not wrap gift items.

This makes it easier on sorting day to count and distribute to the agencies.

Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Gifts and gift cards can be returned for the next 3 weekends at Mass or dropped off during the week at the Parish Office.

PLEASE NOTE. Sunday, December 8th, is the last day to return gifts and gift cards.

Many thanks to our Holy Cross Angels who give so generously each year to make our Angel Program successful!

PARISH OUTREACH

Thanksgiving Basket Program

If you were assigned a basket, please drop off your completed Thanksgiving Basket on Sunday, November 17th, from 3pm - 5pm in the Parish Center.

REMINDER:

If you drop off your basket during Mass on Sunday, November 17th, please place the basket in the Father Joe Room.

Please make sure your basket and any other parcels are clearly marked with the family number assigned to you. Thank you!

Please make every effort to get baskets here by November 17th.

We thank you in advance for your help in making the Thanksgiving Basket Program a huge success.

We will meet on Tuesday,
November 19th,
1-3PM
in the Atrium

Every girl should have the chance to receive, own and wear a new dress. Our Dress a Girl ministry helps make this possible. We gather monthly to lovingly create dress kits at our "Cut-Ups" session. These dress kits are then available to take home, where skilled sewers create beautiful dresses. We hope that each dress symbolizes how special and loved each girl is. Our prayers are with them all.

If you would like to join us, we meet monthly to create the dress kits. If your talent lies in sewing, you are welcome to pick up a dress kit (with instructions) and create a beautiful dress for a girl in need.

All are welcome to join us. Not sure what you can offer?

Our ministry leaders will help guide you as you work alongside others.

If you are interested, we ask that you please RSVP to the Outreach Office at 631- 265-2200 so we can prepare for all those who will attend.

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

This weekend, November 16 & 17, we are collecting for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 37 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face in bringing permanent and positive change to their communities. ### Practice of Hope (Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2024")

From listening to Jesus in today's Gospel, we can learn the importance of paying attention. Jesus encourages his disciples to learn from the growth of the fig tree. In a similar way, we can see the ways God is present in our lives each day, encouraging us to be like the wise who "shine brightly /.../and those who lead the many to justice" (Daniel 12:3).

Sometime this week, go outside to take a walk. Challenge yourself to silence potential distractions, such as technology. As you walk, take note of your surroundings. Can you feel or notice God's presence?

Today's psalm expresses a great deal of love and trust in God: the psalmist proclaims that with the Lord "at my right hand I shall not be disturbed" (Psalm 16:8).

Aside from your walk, spend intentional time in prayer throughout the week to cultivate a relationship with God that radiates delight and trust.
