WRAPPING UP SEPTEMBER

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

The relaxing days of summer are now all in the rearview mirror, and we are back to cranking along at top speed with many areas of parish life. Before you know it, we will be surrounded with Halloween decorations, and all foods will suddenly offer a pumpkin spice option (which I hate).

We just replaced the video surveillance cameras we have located around the parish property, mostly outside the building. We had a system installed ten years ago, which at the time was current technology. Their clarity was not the best, but until recently they had been working. Rather than trying to repair outdated equipment, we replaced what we had. Some of the outdoor wiring also had to be replaced. Thankfully, we have not had any security incidents here, but I feel it is an important safeguard to help protect our employees, parishioners and our property. The cost of the project was about $4,300. The money to cover this expense came from the Renovations and Major Repairs Account. Thank you to all who continually support this collection. It enables us to make necessary repairs without having additional fundraising efforts.

Our Religious Education program is well underway. This week we had several meetings for both parents and students. Family life is demanding. There are many opportunities and activities for children. While Religious Education may not seem the most exciting, we try to emphasize that what we do here at Holy Cross is a unique opportunity for children. While they may not always fully understand or appreciate the message of our faith, it can become a point of reference for them as they grow. The message and the experience we offer here cannot be found elsewhere. We welcome families to participate in the program and our weekend liturgies, as they can become a source of life and strength for them. There is a mutually beneficial dynamic at work: families are blessed by the gift of faith, and we as a community are enhanced by their presence. Next weekend we will do a special Religious Ed "kick-off" at both the 5:00 and 11:30 Masses.

Pray for good weather for next Saturday so that our Family Fall Festival does not become a soggy event. I am happy we are able to offer this to the parish. It is an opportunity for families to have an activity that is not going to cost a fortune. There are free activities for the kids as well as a free pumpkin. The parish does benefit financially through the sale of raffle tickets for the baskets, the 50/50 drawing and food sales. Thank you to the many helping hands that create a day like this.

ANGELS

LITURGY BYTES by Michele Hall

Every year on September 29th, the Church celebrates the Guardian Angels: Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. Throughout the Old and New Testaments, there are numerous accounts of the heavenly spirits.

In the Old Testament, we learn that they stood at the entrance to the Garden of Eden, they directed Abraham when he followed God's instruction to sacrifice his son Isaac, and they even interacted with Israel's kings and prophets. In the New Testament, it was the angel Gabriel who appeared to Mary to tell her she was chosen to be the Mother of Jesus. We also see examples of how the angels worked in the preaching of Jesus. It was the angels who ministered to Jesus during the agony in the garden, and they were present at the Resurrection of Jesus. St. Paul spoke about the hierarchy of the angels several times in his epistles. Later on, it was St. Thomas Aquinas who taught that every one of us is assigned a guardian angel. They perform many important tasks for all of humanity. The three that I mentioned above are the only ones that are named in the Bible.

Most of us are familiar with the idea of patron saints, and these archangels also are known as patrons. Michael, whose name means "who is like God," is the patron saint of soldiers, police officers, paramedics, the sick and dying. Gabriel, whose name means "God is my strength," is patron saint of messengers, postal workers, broadcasters, and expectant mothers. Raphael, whose name means "God has healed," is patron saint of travelers, medical workers, and matchmakers!

Many of us as young children were taught the "Angel" prayer as one of our first prayers. Below is a more adult angel prayer for these three.

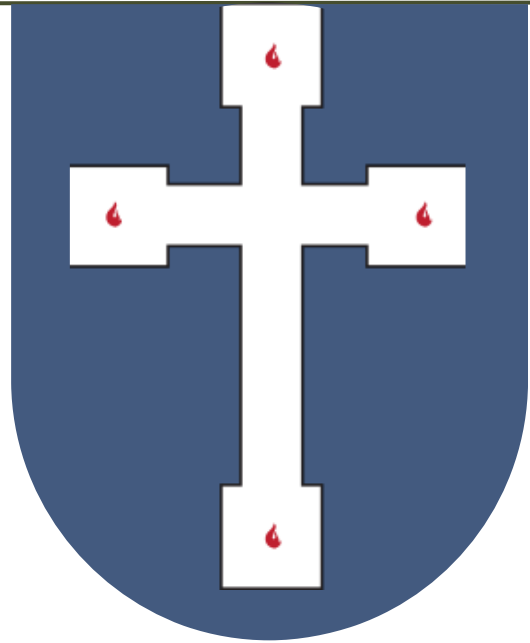

Glorious Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, I entrust myself to your angelic mediation. Please set into motion God's plan for my life, protect me from the evil one, deliver to me God's Holy Word, and heal me of my sin. I thank you for the glorious duties you fulfill in the divine mission and rely upon you in my life. Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, pray for me!

Have an angelic, blessed, and peaceful week ahead!

Practice of Faith (Excerpt from “At Home with the Word 2024”)

Jesus calls his disciples to seriously consider the ways they sin, the ways they choose to move away from God. His intense imagery in today's Gospel according to Mark challenges us to reflect on how we are (or are not) radically rejecting sin and temptation.

The second reading invites you to consider what wealth you are storing up and withholding from the world. Your wealth may be money, but it could also be a talent you have hidden, time you haven't given, kindness you have not shared, or something else. How can you give of your luxury and pleasure to enter right relationship with God and with your community?

Schedule time to go to confession this week. Before celebrating the sacrament of penance, make sure you dedicate time for prayer. For a structured guide to examine your conscience, visit:
<https://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/sacraments-and-sacramentals/penance/examination-conscience-in-light-of-catholic-social-teaching>.

RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY 2024

A PRAYER FOR LIFE

to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, you came that we might have life—and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers' wombs and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it.

By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable.

For you are God, forever and ever.

— AMEN.

Sunday, October 6, is Respect Life Sunday, a day dedicated to reflecting on the sanctity and dignity of all human life. On this day, we are reminded that threats to life and human dignity take many forms in this world. The Diocese works tirelessly to strengthen our commitment to promoting a culture of life through advocacy, education, and parish outreach.

The annual Respect Life collection will be taken up on the weekend of October 5/6, 2024.

Your generosity in the Respect Life envelope collection will support this mission. We deeply appreciate your prayers and support.
