HELPING JESUS

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

As I have shared with you in the past, my favorite outdoor activity at this time of year is trimming back the trees and shrubs that are part of our property. Mother Nature is beautiful, but once she wants to start taking back the space around walkways, buildings, and driveways, that's when I start fighting back to open the space again. With the size of our property, there is always some corner that needs attention (always looking for helping hands with this). Sometimes I feel like Don Quixote battling windmills, but I find it both energizing and calming.

When I am in the midst of these gardening sprees, it is often prayerful time for me. One day recently I was working around the edge of our parking lot. While I was cutting and trimming, I was thinking about various parishioners to whom I had the opportunity to minister. I was thinking of several funerals, weddings and baptisms at which I had recently officiated. There was a litany of names and faces that were running through my mind. In the midst of my gardening blitz, I was feeling thirsty and tired, so I sat down to rest for a few minutes. I sat on one of the benches in our outdoor Stations of the Cross. As I looked up I was in front of the fifth station. The sign said, "Jesus is helped by Simon." It's a simple caption, but for some reason at that moment it was a profound revelation. I felt humbled and affirmed in thinking of my priestly work and applying those words to it. It's one thing to take personal satisfaction in our work and achievements. It is something else to realize it is the spirit and grace of God at work through us.

I try to never take for granted my priestly ministry. I understand that I can play a vital role in people experiencing God at important moments in their lives. But somehow, I never apply the idea that I am "helping Jesus." It is such a simple idea that it almost feels childlike, but there is truth in those words. The only way the presence of Christ will be known in the lives of others is if we are the ones to be the bearer of that gift. Never underestimate the impact our words or actions can have in the life of another. If we make a connection to be the helping hands of Jesus, then what we do takes on great meaning and purpose.

Yes, at a critical moment in his life, Jesus was helped by Simon. On a summer afternoon I was given the insight that Jesus was helped by Michael. Guess what, the ball is in your court. Think of the ways Jesus was helped by you. Don't dismiss your actions as being too simple or insignificant. There are times when the work of our hands becomes the work of Jesus. Ask for God's strength and insight that as you move forward Jesus will always need help. As Mother Theresa once said, "I can do things you can't. You can do things I can't. Together we can do great things for God." May each of us be an instrument of his kindness and compassion and, in doing so, help to build his kingdom among us.

The Exaltation of the Cross

Practice of Charity

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

When it comes to salvation, we may feel confident about our odds. By virtue of our baptism, surely we are the saved. Jesus is warning us not to be complacent - there will be "people...from the east and the west, the north and the south" at God's table whom we least expect to be there.

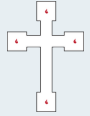

Learn more about this Gospel through this reflection by Harry Dudley, DMIN, on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website (<https://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/how-we-teach/catechesis/catechetical-sunday/year-of-faith/theological-reflection-dudley>).

Thank you to all who donated so generously to our School Supplies for Success Drive this year. With your support, we provided 27 students from 17 families back packs (in their choice of color) filled with school supplies appropriate for their grade level. Thank you!

Also, thank you for the generous financial support given. With your donations, we were able to also include gift cards to purchase more school supplies (if needed) and/or new clothes or sneakers for each student. Thank you!

A special thank you to all the volunteers who helped sort, organize and distribute all the school supplies to our Outreach families. HOLY CROSS BEREAVEMENT

When Your Journey Continues

We are starting a bereavement group for those who may be further in their grief journey but who are still struggling with an unresolved loss.

This group is NOT for newly bereaved. Our next newly bereaved support group will begin in November.

If you are struggling and do not feel you have made much progress, please consider joining the support group. The group will focus on helping you understand the grief process and your own individual reaction to loss. By learning coping strategies, you will be able to manage your grief better and begin the critical process of adjusting to living in a world without the deceased. The group is not therapy but simply a discussion group where you will meet other people who have also suffered a loss. Through sharing life experiences, you can learn from one another which will help in your grief journey.

Space is limited, so if you are interested in joining, please contact Kelley Mowat at the Outreach office by calling 631-265-2200 or by email at Outreach@holycrossrc.org. You will be mailed a registration form. Please complete the form and return it to Kelley by August 27th. Once we receive your registration form your seat is reserved.

We will begin our 4 consecutive week program starting on Wednesday,
September 3rd, from 1:30-3:00PM
in the Father Joe Room.

This training course will provide an introduction to responding to a natural or man-made disaster. Participants will be advised on how to properly prepare for any disaster, including developing a family emergency plan and stocking up on emergency supplies. Each family that attends will receive one preparedness kit.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

RCIA/OCIA

WHAT IS RCIA/OCIA?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), recently renamed OCIA, or Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the process by which adults are welcomed into the Catholic Church.

If you know someone who might be interested in OCIA, please pass this information along.

If you wish to participate in OCIA, or if you have any questions about it, please contact Jude at (631) 265-2200 x116 or jpickel@holycrossrc.org

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

OCIA is open to:

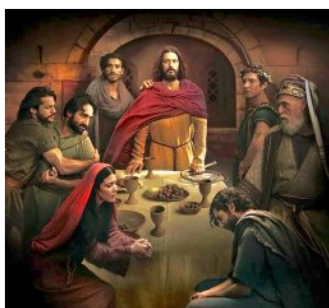

- anyone who is unbaptized and has a desire to learn about the Catholic faith;
- anyone who was baptized in another Christian denomination and wishes to explore membership in the Catholic Church;
- Catholics who have been baptized but have not celebrated the Sacraments of Eucharist (Holy Communion) and Confirmation.

WHAT CAN ONE EXPECT AT OCIA?

Individuals who go through the OCIA process can expect:

- to know themselves and God better,
- to be supported in prayer by the entire parish community, and
- to understand Catholic teachings and practices more clearly.

All that is required is openness to grow and learn.

Dress A Girl Blessing Weekend

As we enter into our fourth year of Dress a Girl Around the World, I would like to thank all that participated in the past year in any way that helped bring over 160 dresses to fruition. If you donated fabric, cut a pocket, a binding, or a dress, or used your talent to sew one dress or 20 - thank you! This amazing ministry could not exist without any of you. A special thank you to the leadership team of Ceil Muscarello, Gerri Schreiber, MaryAnn Viscusi and Donna Akuntius who offer direction, their sewing knowledge and a kind smile to all who donate their time to us.

We will be sending our dresses on their way to Friar Suppliers who will then ship them to Haiti. Every girl should have the chance to receive a beautiful new dress. We provide this opportunity as we create each dress with love. We hope the dress symbolizes how special and loved they are. Our prayers are with them all.

If you would like to join us, we meet monthly for "cut ups" where we cut each dress out and create dress kits for volunteers to sew. If your talent lies in sewing, you are welcome to pick up a dress kit (with instructions) and create a beautiful dress for a girl in need. All are welcome to join us and participate! Thank you again to all who are part of Dress a Girl. I hope you know the impact you make on the life of a girl.

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish.

At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through June, July and August
- Drawing will be held AUGUST 28TH

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- 1 Prize @ $250
- 2 Prizes @ $100
- 10 Prizes @ $50
- 15 Prizes @ $25

This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each.
If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.

Please cut out and use the tickets below.

You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
