Let All Who Enter Be Welcomed as Christ!

Vision Statement:

Holy Cross is a vibrant Catholic community striving to maintain a spirit of welcome to all, serving as a guiding beacon to nourish and sustain prayer, work and play.

*Jesus said to Simon,
"Do not be afraid;
from now on you will be catching men."
When they brought their boats to the shore,
they left everything and followed him.*

PUT OUT INTO DEEP WATERS

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

This is the instructions Jesus gives his disciples in this week's gospel reading. At first glance, the instruction does not make a lot of sense. First, this was not the first time the disciples ever went fishing; this was their livelihood long before Jesus came along. They did not need guidance on the proper way to fish. Second, it's not as if the disciples had been goofing off and needed to focus on their work. We hear that they had been fishing all night long. In spite of the unusual request, the disciples did as they were instructed.

Of course, this story needs to be understood on a symbolic level. What implications do these instructions have in our lives? Honestly, this is not the best image for me to hear. I love taking a cruise on a huge ship. But put me on a little bouncy fishing boat, and I turn the same color as my new car (green). I have never been a great swimmer. I could not advance in Boy Scouts because of my limitations in the pool. For me, this invitation is somewhat threatening and uncomfortable.

Even if you love every aspect of the water, there is something in this message that is meant to be a challenge. Deep waters connote a certain level of mystery and uncertainty. This does not mean that it is to be avoided at all costs. The sea is a place of great beauty. The sea is a place of abundant life. But we need to dare ourselves to enter that great abyss.

The instruction of Jesus leads to a miraculous catch of fish. On a practical level this was a great blessing to the disciples. But Jesus had something in mind other than a bonanza of fish. He needed them to look at life differently and understand what they were capable of doing. He said to them from now on they would "be catching men." Jesus was calling them to discipleship. Their initial response was fear and saying they were unworthy. Yet, the assurance of Jesus allowed them to overcome their uncertainty and trust in the call. We hear that "they left everything and followed him." They would now be drawing people to share in the mystery and gift of Jesus. This one event of putting their nets back into the deep waters changed their lives.

Hopefully you have had at least one moment in your life when you were challenged to grow. Perhaps you can recall that moment when you felt called to choose a particular path to walk in life. The Scripture readings do not call us to risky behavior. But they do remind us that at times God will call us to do more than we think we can do. God will sometimes teach us that we are capable of accomplishing something new and transforming in our lives.

May we be mindful of deep waters that surround us. Let us ask for the wisdom to discern where there is beauty and life. We are asked to trust in the Lord that he will lead us where we need to go. May we, too, reap in the abundance of God's mercy and blessings as we move forward in the journey of our lives.

By the way, Happy Super Bowl Sunday. I will dutifully watch the game and eat a chicken wing.

THE WATERS OF OUR BAPTISM

LITURGY BYTES by Michele Hall

Matthew's Gospel ends with the great commission: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mt. 28:19-20)

Baptism is the central part of our lives as Christians. The liturgy of baptism is rich in meaning, using the symbols of water, oil, a new garment, and a lighted candle. Most of us do not recall our baptisms except from the pictures our family showed to us.

Using the imagery of the blue cloth waving in the sanctuary today at Mass and the words of the song "Living Waters of Hope" that was introduced this weekend, let us reflect on the meaning this sacrament has for each of us. Baptism embraces the Paschal mystery—the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus as we are immersed in the waters, we are re-born to new life, receiving the new garment signifying new life in Christ. The sacrament also involves conversion, pardoning and cleansing. It takes away the sin of Adam and Eve (original sin). The link between baptism and original sin is that the newly baptized, or in the case of an infant, the parents, have chosen discipleship in Christ and initiation into a community that fosters the values of discipleship and renounces sinfulness. Most importantly, baptism offers the grace to overcome sin. This great sacrament also shares the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Just think about the words of baptism when we become temples of the Holy Spirit. Through sanctifying grace, we are able to live by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit through the gifts that the Spirit shares with us. The Church speaks of the seal of baptism imparting an indelible spiritual mark that shows we belong to Christ. It is the reason the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders are received only once. Lastly, baptism joins us to the Body of Christ, the Christian community sharing in the Church's mission to spread the good news of Jesus. We are sacramentally bonded and united to all those who have been baptized. What can we do as Pilgrims of Hope this week to truly live out our baptisms?

Have a safe, healthy, and blessed week ahead!

Practice of Faith

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

Our Scriptures today are flush with "call" stories. After the prophet Isaiah's vision, his mouth is purified with a burning ember, and he hears the call of the Lord. St. Paul testifies about his conversion to faith in his letter to the people of Corinth. St. Luke narrates how Jesus called Simon, James, and John out of their fishing boat and into their destiny as disciples. These accounts inspire reflection on our call.

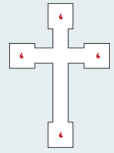

Sketch a timeline of your life, paying special attention to when you experienced the Lord's call. What happened and how did you respond?

Reflect on how you use your voice in service of faith. What words of glory, praise, and gratitude do you speak? How do you share your faith with others in your circle of influence?

The Church observes February 11 as both the optional Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes and World Day of the Sick. Join in prayer for all those in need of physical and spiritual healing and all those who are called to the healing professions around the world.

PARISH OUTREACH

We will meet on Tuesday,
February 18th,
1-3PM
in the Atrium

Every girl should have the chance to receive, own and wear a new dress. Our Dress a Girl ministry helps make this possible. We gather monthly to lovingly create dress kits at our "Cut-Ups" session. These dress kits are then available to take home, where skilled sewers create beautiful dresses. We hope that each dress symbolizes how special and loved each girl is. Our prayers are with them all.

If you would like to join us, we meet monthly to create the dress kits. If your talent lies in sewing, you are welcome to pick up a dress kit (with instructions) and create a beautiful dress for a girl in need.

All are welcome to join us. Not sure what you can offer?

Our ministry leaders will help guide you as you work alongside others.

If you are interested, we ask that you please RSVP to the Outreach Office at 631- 265-2200 so we can prepare for all those who will attend.

WE GROW IN FAITH

For the Ride Home.....

What did you hear today in the Scriptures?

- Peter does not always live up to what he promised when he left everything to follow Jesus. His journey with Christ is like ours, having ups and downs at times. Where are you on your walk with Jesus?
- What imperfections do you have that you try to keep out of your life of faith? How might you offer these to God to work with?
- What might God be asking you to leave behind to more wholeheartedly follow Jesus?

For the young people

- What did St. Paul tell us today in the second reading?
- What miracle happened in the Gospel today?
- How did the Apostles react?

Our parish is always in need of more Ministers of Holy Communion...

to serve at the weekend Masses. The Diocese is offering training this Spring. If you are interested, please speak with Fr. Michael, as a letter on your behalf needs to be submitted to the Bishop's Office. Please check below for the Spring Training dates and sites. If you have any other questions, please contact Michele Hall at: mhall@holycrossrc.org

As Catholics, we are sent on mission to spread the Gospel to everyone we encounter. A common phrase you may have heard is, "preach the Gospel, and if necessary, use words." The idea behind the phrase is that our actions should speak louder than our words, and our actions should exemplify us as disciples of Christ. One way for us to do this is by making a sacrificial gift to the benefit of another person. The Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) gives us an opportunity to do just that.

Support of the CMA is crucial for the survival of numerous ministries and programs throughout the Diocese. They include Faith Formation of our seminarians, deacons, and lay leaders; Faith Formation for our young adult and youth ministry and our children in Religious Education classes; Respect Life initiatives; Catholic Charities affordable housing for seniors and people with disabilities, substance abuse programs, food programs and Parish Social Ministry support.

The work that the CMA funds is so important, as it reaches across Long Island and all generations. Think about the impact your gift today will have for years to come. A gift today can fund the education of a seminarian who will become a priest and bring others to Christ throughout his life. Your gift can help someone start life over again by breaking the chains of addiction and living life with dignity and faith. A gift may be used to help a young single mother raise her baby with confidence and security. Our gifts touch so many lives in our community.

I ask you to please join me and all your brothers and sisters within our diocese to prayerfully consider making a gift to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please do so to the best of your ability as all gifts matter, regardless of the size. Please also remember, 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. No donations are used to fund the bankruptcy settlement.

Finally, if you are unable to make a gift at this time due to circumstances in your life, please reach out to the parish at any time so that we may help you in any way that we can. You are never alone, and your church community is always here to support you.

May God bless you, your loved ones, and our parish.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

F. Michael

Winter Windfall

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish. At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through December, January and February.
- Drawing will be held February 28.

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- * 1 Prize @ $250
- * 2 Prizes @ $100
- * 10 Prizes @ $50
- * 15 Prizes @ $25

- This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each. If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.
- Please use the tear-off tickets below. You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.
