MID-JUNE REPORT

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

The past few weeks my columns have been about spiritual matters and life within the Church and beyond. These are certainly pertinent and appropriate things to write about. But it's also fun to write about the silly and more ordinary stuff of life, particularly as we move closer to the summer.

Allow me to begin with a tale of yardwork at the house. My TV room has a wall of windows that faces the front of the house. In front of those windows is a row of ornamental shrubbery. I do my best to keep them pruned and trimmed and looking neat. There are a variety of plants, but two of them have been a nuisance since the day I moved here. They look like azalea bushes, but they have thorns. Through the years it has been a painful task to prune or to pick weeds around them. I dread going near them because they always seem to get me. In spite of trying to keep them trimmed back, they grew larger and larger. A few weeks ago, I approached them for their first spring trimming. I ended up with a handful of thorns. I then came to a profound insight: there are some things that demand a lifelong commitment. A spikey plant is not one of them. I don't know why it took me twelve years to come to this conclusion. I yanked them out and replaced them with two softer and gentler bushes. Ah, the simple things of life that bring us joy.

The next few weeks are just delightful because of the length of sunlight each day. I just love being able to put in a full day in the office and then still have a few hours for working in the yard. It just feels like the perfect way to balance the day between work and play. (Hey, that rhymes!)

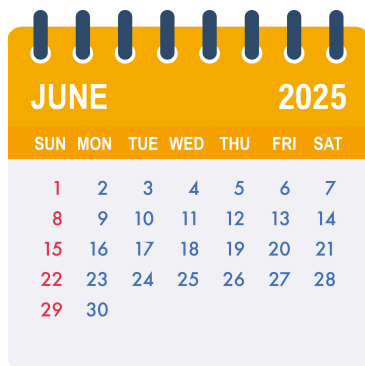

Before getting back to Church life, here is one final random request. I want to learn how to shuck an oyster. If anyone has that ability and would like to teach a novice the trick of enjoying a nice fresh oyster, I would love to hear from you. I will even let you keep any pearls we find when we open them up.

Next week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, traditionally called Corpus Christi Sunday. As we did last year, we will offer a Eucharistic procession at the end of each Mass, weather permitting. We will invite our children who recently received First Holy Communion to be part of the special processions.

Also, next Sunday we will be having a special thank you gathering for all those who are involved in parish ministry. This year we will be offering an "Ice Cream Social." It begins at 2:00PM with a prayer and gathering in the Worship Area followed by ice cream under the tent in the courtyard. It is a simple gathering, but it is important to express our gratitude to the many people who commit themselves to the various ministries of the parish. Please let us know by tomorrow if you plan to attend. (We would hate to run out of sprinkles!)

Enjoy these wonderful spring days as we approach the first official day of summer...and a Blessed and Happy Father's Day is wished to all of our dads!

SIGNING OF THE SENSES

LITURGY BYTES by Michele Hall

You are probably wondering what the above notation, "signing of the senses," is referring to. This is the gesture we do at the beginning of the Gospel acclamation read by the priest or deacon at Mass. Many things happen at Mass that we often participate in without fully knowing their meaning. So why do we do this, and what does this gesture mean?

As the priest or deacon proclaims: "A reading from the Holy Gospel according to.....," the congregation responds, "Glory to you, O Lord." At that moment, everyone makes three small signs of the Cross on their forehead, lips, and heart. Why?

This triple sign of the Cross is more than a ritual. It is a silent prayer. With this gesture, we ask the following:

- May the Word of God be in my mind or in my thoughts.
- May the Word of God be on my lips and in my speech.
- May the Word of God be in my heart and shape my love.

It is a personal moment of devotion and preparation asking God that His Gospel transform our minds, guide our words, and purify our hearts.

The practice has roots back over a thousand years in Church history and shows the deep reverence the Church gives to the Gospel. It reminds us that we are not listeners of the Word but are called to live the Word in our lives. So, next week at Mass as the Gospel begins and you trace the cross on those three spots, remember what you are saying:

"Lord may Your Word be in my mind, on my lips and in my heart. Amen."

Have a prayerful, restful, and joyful week ahead!

Practice of Hope

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2025")

The Gospel is clear that the poetic serenity and confidence of the first reading ("The Lord possessed me, the beginning of his ways...I was his delight day by day") is possible because it is mediated through the person of Jesus and the Holy Spirit. Through baptism, we are invited to enter into this relationship of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, which is our hope of salvation.

Read the poem "Hope Is a Thing with Feathers," by Emily Dickinson, with its intimations of the freely given gift of the Holy Spirit. Thank God for his gift of the Holy Spirit and hope. End your prayer with the doxology ("Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit...")

Find an area of your life where you are fearful and make an active choice to replace that fear with hope - believing that you are God's delight.

PARISH OUTREACH & COMMUNITY

We will meet on Tuesday
June 17th
1-3PM
in the Atrium

Every girl should have the chance to receive, own and wear a new dress. Our Dress a Girl ministry helps make this possible. We gather monthly to lovingly create dress kits at our "Cut-Ups" session. These dress kits are then available to take home, where skilled sewers create beautiful dresses. We hope that each dress symbolizes how special and loved each girl is. Our prayers are with them all.

If you would like to join us, we meet monthly to create the dress kits. If your talent lies in sewing, you are welcome to pick up a dress kit (with instructions) and create a beautiful dress for a girl in need.

All are welcome to join us. Not sure what you can offer?

Our ministry leaders will help guide you as you work alongside others.

If you are interested, we ask that you please RSVP to the Outreach Office at 631- 265-2200 so we can prepare for all those who will attend.

All Fathers Everywhere

Psalm 103:13: "As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him."

For many years the Cash Calendar was a part of the Holy Cross routine, and this fundraiser provided some additional financial support to the parish.

At this time, it is unlikely that we have enough parishioners attending Mass on a weekly basis to support a monthly drawing, so we will continue as we have done for the past few years with our quarterly drawing.

- $10 per ticket
- Tickets are available for purchase through June, July and August
- Drawing will be held AUGUST 28TH

This is the pay scale which will be offered:

- 1 Prize @ $250
- 2 Prizes @ $100
- 10 Prizes @ $50
- 15 Prizes @ $25

This formula was based upon selling 250 tickets @ $10 each.
If more than 250 tickets are sold, the number of prizes will be increased.

Please cut out and use the tickets below.

You may return your entries by placing them in an envelope and depositing it in the basket on weekends, or returning them to the Parish Office.

Thank you for your support!
