What age were you when you got hit by the good'ole music bug?
My mother says I use to babble in melodies haha

What's the most important part of your recording process?
I'm a perfectionist so I'll continue to sing line by line over and over again if I don't like something so for me what's most important is finding a certain sound of mine that I enjoy listening to.

How difficult has it been to manage time to do so much work with so little time and have similar levels of success in each area?
It's been easier to get a lot of social platform work done and writing during the lockdown because I had a lot of free time. Now it's just trying to find the time to record it all.

Are you planning on sorting out a deal or objectively remaining independent til further notice?
For right now I'm good with being independent, though if the deal was right I wouldn't be against it.

What would be the ultimate accomplishment for you as an artist?
I always say your girl doesn't dream small! I want to perform at the Grammys, Tour America/Over seas and perform for a super bowl half time show.

Top Sport Influencers on you?
I love football but I don't have a person in sports that really influences me in any way.

Live Performance or Studio Session?
There are pros to both, and I love both for different reason! Live performances are always fun because you get to feed off of a crowds energy but sometimes its nice to just be in a recording booth, just you an a mic with no other noise or distractions around you.

Your Favorite City to perform in?
Pittsburg of course! It's my hometown.

Who do you take notice of, an absolutely apply to your work ethic and character presentation from in the film industry (your favorite actor?)
• Tori Kelly and Kehlani

Your Favorite Music Influencers (past & present)?
• Tori Kelly, Jazmine Sullivan, and Christina Aguilera

Who do you make the idea of your music based on inspiration of today's artists or artists of the throwback era?
• I would say a mix of Tori Kelly and Kehlani

Your Favorite Artists of All Time (past & present)?
• Tori Kelly

Your Favorite Producer?
I like Dr. Dre, DJ Khalid and Clean Bandit

Brief Bio: (Success Story - Awards - Performances with Major Acts):

Pretti Emage, pronounced Pretty Image, is an American Hip Hop and R&B duo originating from Tampa, Florida formed by two sisters, Jaleesah "Mizz Attitude" Riley aka Queen Jayy and Zayah "Baby Girl" Riley. Their music, which is a blend of Hip Hop, Pop and R&B first entered the music scene back in 2016.

Since then their music has soared their career and even won them a plethora of accolades for their musical accomplishments such as several independent music awards for best album and artists and an Akademia award for best Hip-Hop/Rap song. Their hard driven beats and energy fueled lyrics has catapulted them into a lane of their own. Growing up in a musical family it was destined for these young ladies to choose the music industry as their purpose and calling.

While aiming for success and still at the precipice of their career they continue to reach higher heights as their music continues to evolve. As independent artists these sisters have graced some of the biggest stages alongside major acts such as 95 South, Ying Yang Twins, Dru Hill, Lloyd, Jagged Edge and K Michelle, As their musical journey continues to unfold the best is yet to come.

Who is the feisty one?

Mizz Attitude

Who is the protector?

Both

Who is the one that is laid back?

Baby Girl

Who is always ready for a challenge no matter what?

Both of us.

Sisters 4ever ever, is there any chance that you guys have solo careers as well as together as Florida's Youngest Dynamic Duo? In the future we look forward to adventuring out and doing separate things. But as for me Baby Girl!

I do have a modeling and acting career I started when I was 8 years old

Are You a Fan of The Baddest Chic aka Trina? just like her we are Florida made. Yes we are fans of the Baddest Chick Trina,

What are you doing differently this year as opposed to 2020? Definitely working hard to do more touring more collabs and features and hopefully working with some awesome producers. SM-Money or Fame? Money

Who is more of the influence on Florida Female Rappers, The Baddest or City Girls in your opinion and particular to your duo? The baddest Because every female rapper in Florida looks up to Trina.

How important is it to be able to have your father taking charge in order to make sure you can pursue your dreams? It is very important because he will always have our best interest at heart.

Who would you sign with if you had the opportunity to do a record Label deal? Hustle Gang With TI

What artists are y'all interested in collaborating with? Majority of the artist in the Hip Hop and R&B industry

KALOR "KAY NATE" NATHAN

Who is Kay Nate?

Born and raised in Houston, TX. I was given many opportunities to travel and really enjoyed myself. I was introduced to the professional world of photography in 2010 when asked by a close friend to be a muse. I love expressing myself and various concepts through photography. In 2011, I was invited to be part of a modeling team which led to my participation in a runway fashion show. The thrill of being in front of the camera and on stage led me to pursue more endeavors in the model industry. I've had the opportunity to travel for various fashion events, work with numerous photographers, and assist with the production of fashion and music showcases. I became the co-founder of Kay and Lola's World December 2013; a partnership with my sister, model Lola De L'argent. Together we have made a name for ourselves as models, promoters, hosts and event organizers.

Music has always played an important role in my life. In 2014, I was presented with the opportunity to work promotions with a new internet-based radio station in Houston, TX. While working promotions for the radio station, I began to explore other opportunities. With the help of Lola, our radio show Triple Threat was created. Triple Threat was a show surrounding music, fashion, and all things entertainment. We provided a major platform to help individuals "level up" and be both heard and seen. Everybody knows that there is nothing like having support in the building, so we went out to support artists when invited to see them perform. While working at the radio station, I was promoted to Program Director, which was an opportunity to advance and gain more industry knowledge.

The year 2017 was a year of growth. Lola and I launched Soaring High Entertainment & Management and began hosting events based on things we felt were missing in the city. We hosted an artist development workshop, a series of R&B events, artist showcases, comedy shows, a city to city tour, and more. Providing different platforms for artists is fulfilling to me. My team continued to develop and we focused on traveling out of the city. Brooklyn and Atlanta were the first stops on our list. In December of 2018, we started the H-Town Trafficking Tour with So Sincere Ent and created a specific team of independent artists to work with. We assisted with building their brands, industry knowledge, and travel. I love having the ability to bridge gaps with artists by helping them gain knowledge and elevate in their career.

In the midst of it all, I became a manager of entertainers, created many platforms, and assisted my daughter, who was 10 at the time, with the creation of her own lip gloss collection - Kristalz. In 2020, I was provided the opportunity to open my own lounge in Houston. The Getaway Place was created to provide opportunities for not only entertainers but anyone looking to escape and relax. It has been a joy bringing everything together. 2021 brought forward more opportunities. I became the manager of Houston based GVO Studios, joined GrindCityTV on RokuTV, and founded Moskee Distribution, which is my own distribution company. I'm now able to offer full song distribution, marketing and promotion to independent artists. Plus, I am able to assist artists with studio time, production, radio play, RokuTV appearances, magazine features, independent tours nationwide, and more! My goal is to continue taking over as a female boss providing opportunities and soaring high.

Remember: The sky is NOT the limit.

Who would you sign with if you had the opportunity to do a record deal as a Label?
Universal Music Group

What artists are you interested in collaborating with when the opportunity presents itself?
Moneybagg Yo, Lil Baby, Jay Z, Jeezy and Rick Ross

Rae Sremmurd how do you feel about their music, being that they are from a small market industry wise in Tupelo, Mississippi similar to your experience in Jackson?
They make great music and I applaud their hard work and lyrical skills.

How much of an influence is Lil' Lonnie, R. I. P to him, be it the two of you have, being from that Jackson, Mississippi foundation?
I remember putting him on a show and knowing he was going to be a star. My kids all met him and loved his music. His death really affected us as a family. They all got shirts made from the pics they took with him and we all prayed together as they shedded tears.

Neighbors pretty much at least for the city of Jackson, speak to me about the Statement and important impact that Mississippi made yet again in the early 2000's with David Banner "Cadillac On 22's" did you rock with his music with his success, on the music map and established him as a National Rapper, he had Mississippi looking good also, any influence from that side of the market?
Yes I definetley rocked with Banner. He actually gave me advice when i was first starting and told me where to get vinyl from. Im actually in two magazines hes in The Ozone and Murderdog from 2003. The first magazines I was ever in.

Jackson State University is your Alma Mad-a, what do you see for the future of our Historic School and it's hire of non other than Primetime Dion Sanders as the Face of The Establishment?
Deon made alot of ppl more proud to be from Jackson. I think Jackson will eventually grow seeing that its so much potential here. We have a lot of talent in every faccet of life. Not only music but every sport, movies and labor skills such as barbers, lawyers and doctors.

Brand sponsors with major endorsements unlike we've ever witnessed along with celebrities making it public that they will be supporting us from all across the country bringing tourism and business opportunities for the entire Mississippi perspectives, what do you think about that?
I think its great for society and for those living in poverty or just above poverty. Having hope is a great motivational tool for all of us especially the kids that can see something different and positive.

Tell us some of the little things that are really important to you that you would like for your new readers and followers to know about you?
My family is most important to me especially my daughter and brother. I love to see ppl elevate above all circumstances and excel. I learned that the way you think dictates the outcome of all situations. It's important to put yourself in

Artist Name: Bundy

Birthplace: Seattle, WA

Residing: Seattle/Tacoma

Single Title: Wild

Album Title: Next of Kin

Hobbies: working out, playing sports (basketball, tennis, snowboarding) video games (COD, NBA 2K, Madden) meditating by lakes/ocean, cooking, writing.

Interest: aside from my hobbies, I'm always looking to try new things and have new life experiences. Every new experience I get contributes to my creativeness as a writer and an artist.

Zodiac: Leo - July 30th.

What is your Artist's Inspiration:

I try to find inspiration in everything that I do. A lot of times whenever something allows me to get fully in tune with my emotions and how I'm feeling, typically makes for the best outcome. There's actually been a few times where I'll shed a tear cause what I'm writing is coming from the heart.

Who are your Artist Influences?

I'd say my biggest influences range from Drake, Juice WRLD, Lil Wayne, Mac Miller, Prince, Snoop, Dr Dre, Wiz Khalifa and of course my cousin Jimi. I'm always finding new Artist though that I admire and love how they create.

What's your motivation?

My biggest motivation is wanting to make music that changes peoples lives. I want to make music that can resonate with people, that creates an emotional connection between listeners and me. I have music that'll encourage people to have the time of their life, and music that'll probably create some type of self reflection as well. But whatever the listeners experience is, I want everybody to be better than they were before, myself included.

How long have you been working on music?

I started writing poetry in middle school and my my first song with my brother back in 2011. Eventually me and some of the homies at school made a group called Buto Productions and we have probably some of the funniest songs you'll ever hear. But in 2018 the homie Taiwan sent some beats and we ended up making a couple songs, then an EP and a mixtape. That's when we started taking music a lot more serious than we have in the past.

When is your release?

Right now we're thinking around February, I just want to make sure we have everything lined up for a proper release.

Where is the availability of your music going to be?

As of right now I have pretty much all of my music on my website (www.flyywith2ys.com) to listen for free, but my project Next of Kin will be available on all streaming sites.

where you are originally from?

I from Cedar Grove/ Turkey rd in supply NC

How did you get involved with music and when did you decide that it could be a financial means, to a more profitable life?

I got involved basically from the early 90's my big cousins had a group shade tree militia and had been touring up an down the east coast... so when I saw them in limos and jewelry an money it's was jus like yea dats our family business so it's like it was already planted in my head to make music

This is a business decision dominated industry, tell us what's your motivation for your choice of career, knowing that the odds are stacked up and not necessarily in your favor?

i jus believe in myself and my team around me and thanks to the most high I can without a doubt say actually recording music has not been our issue. We have been blessed to make solid records for 20 years. So I trust the process and keep moving forward to reach my goals

Tell us about your latest release, I mean give us some particulars, like who is behind the production?

I'm currently working on my first album as a solo artis so I'm working with several different artist and producers so my main man hounds sound it's engineering about 90% of the album and my guy critty from Conway SC does most of the mix an mastering for me we also have a record on the album "won't say it to me" in which he made the beat and engineered the record I recorded it at his studio... other than that I'm working with slimioski out of the Bay Area Texas, tony Texaco he is my cousin he is heavy out near Jacksonville nc, also YL Dallas out of Dallas Texas did some beats an hooks and there is more I like working with different people cause every body brings sumtn different

Do you write your own songs?

Yes I write my own stuff

What is your favorite recording studio?

my favorite studio is Hounds Sounds studio in holden beach NC

What's the vibe like between yourself and your engineers?

We keep it simple we been recording together since day one so the vibe is always live it's like another home when I pull up

Are we dropping a full project or are we keen on releasing singles at this time?

I'm dropping 2 singles off the album actually 3, one is already out so ima drop one in august, one In September and the album will drop In October

How many projects or songs have you released to this day?

We have a very large catalog I will say maybe 60-70 actually released on the internet somewhere but we have a vault with over 1k songs

Do you have Management and if so, explain your process on a weekly basis and how has it helped to progress?

No management I manage myself, but we have a great network of professionals we can call with any questions or get together and come up with creative ideas to move my career further how will you utilize your voice as an influence to other young artists who desire to be in the music industry?

I own a label "Branch Off Records" and one thing I tell the younger artists is of course make the best music u can, but also wake up every day an try to be a better person. Take this music very serious and work hard that's the only way to succeed at anything. I also stress to them that what's for u is for u not ya homeboys and all dat if they not helping the cause! I can't tell them who they can be around, just don't bring em round me talkin music...basically jus work hard and stay focused an try to make everyday better than yesterday

Blaq Pyrates

Blaq Pyrates Biography

Originally, the award winning Independent Hip Hop/Soul group, Blaq Pyrates, was known as the Trapville Pyrates and was founded by Ali "Obawale" Rahman, named Fetty Cash aka Zodoq Banks, in 2003. It included his 2 brothers Amin "Obayemi" Rahman, named Rasta Rudd, Karim "Obatunji" Rothwell, named Primo Dollars the Blaq God aka Marty MacFly, and cousin Hayward Hollingsworth, named Koolgi Kid. In 2007, because of the negative use of the word "trapping", the name was changed to the acronym: B.L.A.Q. P.Y.R.A.T.E.S., which stands for "Brothers Linked Amongst Qualifications, Protect Your Riches Alias Through Extreme Status". The current logo was created by the Rasta Rudd and converted into an electronic graphic by Lord Jafar Kellam. In 2009, Koolgi Kid left the Pyrates to start another group & was replaced by neighborhood friend, Michael Childs, named Nephew "2Cupps" Shawty. In 2010, a cousin and supporter of the cause, Jeffrey Alexander, named Jonny Papez "The 7", became a member. Then in 2015, musician Kendale Gibson, named York "Dalightman" ILL, became the final capstone member of the group.

In 2017, the group became a corporation and formed the Independent record label Blaq Pyrate

Nation, LLC and named Fetty Cash aka Zodoq Banks as CEO. Also, in the same year, the group started the publishing company, Blaq Pyrate Nation Publishing, with the goal of publishing their own music, as well as, the music of other up and coming independent musicians. Each member of the Blaq Pyrates holds membership in either BMI Songwriter Association or ASCAP Songwriter/Publishing Association. In June 2017, after being discovered by Christopher Edwards Rapley and Timo James, the Blaq Pyrates became winners of the Rapco Radio/Albany Sony Distribution Competition Showcase Tour which awarded them a Sony Music Entertainment Distribution Record Deal. In December 2017, the Blaq Pyrates received Independent Tone Music Awards in the following categories: 2017 Alternative Rock Upcoming Artist/Band of the Year, 2017 Pop Artist of the Year, & 2017 R&B/Soul Artist of the Year. They were also the winners of the 2018 Independent Tone Award for "Hip Hop / Soul Group Of The Year".

In January 2018, Blaq Pyrates graced the cover and was featured in "Crunk Atlanta Magazine". Also, in that same month, the group released their hit single "Get It", featuring Warner Brothers super producer Get Cool. However, due to distribution complications, "Get It" will be rereleased in summer 2020. In November of 2019, the group released their second major single, "Problems" under their independent record label, Blaq Pyrate Nation, LLC. In that same year, after meeting the Legendary Khujo Goodie, of Goodie Mob, Blaq Pyrates was able to land placement on Khujo's latest album, "Feed the Lions", after licensing the rights to use "Problems" for the project.

In 2020, the group continued to expand their online presence with the start of their official website, Blaqpyrates.com. In July 2020, the group will release the track and debut Vevo video "Steady Growth" featuring Vigilany of New World Renaissance. The video was filmed in New York City's Time Square one month before the devastating COVID-19 outbreak. Vigilany linked up with Blaq Pyrates to create the subgroup The Administration. The year also saw the group stepping into retail with the start of their official online store, The Nation™, followed by the creation of the high end fashion line, Zódoq Mabenki™, named after founding member Fetty Cash aka Zodoq Banks. The fashion line's upcoming, and highly anticipated, featured product is a handmade leather high top shoe created by Owusu A. Bonsu of West Africa. The year will also see the release of tracks and official videos for "Different Type Of Rich", "Social Media", "SupaFly", "Summertime", along with a highly anticipated track featuring Khujo Goodie. Blaq Pyrates also plans to release a host of new and rereleased mixtapes. Stay tuned for more and FOLLOW THE BLAQ PYRATE NATION!

What the most important part of your recording process? Establishing a real connection with the engineer I'm working with. Like many artists I want my vision to be brought to life perfectly, which means I need the engineer to care about my music as if it were their own injecting ideas, giving criticism as the session goes on to make the result something even more than what I imagined.

Care to mention any upcoming projects or Novels authored by you? MUSIC: I'm working on a EP called "Juneteenth". Its a celebratory EP about the legacy of strength and beauty black people have established. It drops June 19th. Also "Tales of a Fool 1.5" which is more or less a remix album is set to drop Fall of 2021. When I say remix, I don't mean the same beat with features, many of the songs have the same title with 1.5 next to it but they are completely different vocals and beats from the original but embodies the same topic. NOVEL: Tales of a Fool: The Epic, is a novel inspired by the album, it's a fantasy adventure novel following the adventures of men that lives in a world where various times have merged with modern day society. So imagine, WW2 Hitler Armies, Ancient Egypt or Kemet, Alexander the Great and Genghis Khan's empires all suddenly reappearing today. Instead of simple releasing the full novel at once I will be releasing two chapters a week starting June 2021 and drop the full Novel the same day as "Tales of a Fool 1.5" the album is released.

How difficult has it been to manage time to do so much work with so little time and have similar levels of success in each area? Extremely lol. I'm just one person, and a artist at that. But still I have to learn and create marketing plans, financial plans manage artwork, learn how both the music and Literature industry works. All while being full time military and I don't have a manager so its just me. But I will say since I merge my music and my novels together it makes it easier to focus as a move in either direction is helping the other to a certain extend.

Your Favorite Artists of All Time (past & present)? Such a difficult question! From a listening stand point I'd say Sam Cooke, Mariah Carey, Kanye West, Aaliyah and Lauryn Hill.

Your Favorite Producer? Timberland and Pharrell. I can't pick just one of them lol.

What would be the ultimate accomplishment for you as an artist? To have millions of people hear my music around the world and let me know how it has affected them. And have my music and writing bring in enough revenue to fully support myself and my family with enough money left to help others get to the same goal, freedom.

Who do you take notice of, an absolutely apply to your work ethic and character presentation from in the film industry (your favorite actor?) Bruno Mars

Your Favorite City to perform in? Seoul, South Korea. I've spent the larger part of my adult live in south Korea.

Inspiration:

It's two fold, the first being release. Its my way of decompressing and turning all the emotions I have from my life experience be them negative or positive into something that will last. Something meaningful, that I can look at and be proud of for me. The second, when I was younger I use to listen to music and although I couldn't relate to the songs in there entirety I could relate to certain lines. Those lines got me through a lot of mentally tuff times. It inspired me to create music that would give people something to hold on to and allow them to release as well through my music and my experience. I believe that we are going through similar things in life, if your able to share, your story can help someone else.

On this “My Way” project is where you start to see HunchoFR finding his lane and understanding how to use his lyrical content to influence people in a positive perspective!

Currently, HunchoFR is working on his debut album as he keeps releasing songs and in February 2021, he is scheduled to release another single, titled “RARE”.

HunchoFR

@HunchoFR

 @HunchoFR

HunchoFR is an emerging artist with roots in Dothan, Alabama. Amazingly at age (8) he wrote his first rhyme. Overtime, Huncho began to get praise from the message within his lyrics and the ability capture the attention of a crowd at such an early stage in his young life.

Huncho was part of a Rap Group that he had quickly become a leading member amongst his peers who along with his posse started achieving local notoriety in their hometown from staying active within community events, etc!

HunchoFR's family moved to Atlanta, Ga by the age of 13 and during this transition is when the future star artist, had begun to take hip-hop more serious than normal activity. When he moved to Atlanta, GA the Group dismantled and young HunchoFR started a solo career. As time went on, while still improving his skills, HunchoFR found himself in trouble and had to take an extended vacation.

During his two-year vacation he had the time to really focus on his self and a realistic plan for his return to society and Social Awareness.

Upon HunchoFR's release, he recorded an released his first mixtape "Love Is Pain" in 2019. This project had a few popular songs featured in the likes of "Monday", "In Too Deep", "Pure", and "Soul Live On". This gave him some acknowledgment and the confidence to continue his passion in Hip- Hop. Not less than a year later he drops another project titled "FRFR" in February 2020. This gave more insight into HunchoFR's life, with singles like, "Have my Back", "Obsessions", and "Faith". As soon as "FRFR" dropped he went right back into the recording studio and started creating.

October 2020 HunchoFR dropped his latest project "My Way". This has been said by tastemakers, to be his best work to date. On this project the standout recordings that are interesting are as follows! "OF Course", "Which One", "The Same", "Mourning (Morning)", "Neva Liked Dem", and "Feelin' Her".

Chris Porter

Website: popolitickin.com

Phone: 760-717-5803

Email: popolitickin@gmail.com

Today we'd like to introduce you to Chris Porter.

Originally from Columbus, Mississippi, Chris Porter is a visionary and founder of the rising brand PoPolitickin.com. Exposed to many unique leadership positions throughout his life, he looks to lead PoPolitickin.com into the forefront of the Internet.

Since 2008, Chris has been working hard on his hip hop meets self-help brand. Developed into a conscious brand that aligns itself with helping artists, philanthropy, and offers exposure through a strong online presence, Po Politickin' is a hybrid between Dr. Phil and YoMTV Raps. Having interviewed well over 600+ guests, Po Politickin speaks to Hip Hop Artists, Singers, Authors, and Motivational Speakers, who have all different kinds of walks of life. Chris's interests include personal development, metaphysics, leadership, coaching, bodybuilding, music, and sports. Chris is a Marine Corps veteran, serving from 2000 to 2004.

Since 2000, Chris has lived in North County San Diego. Chris has received a bachelor's degree in Business Management, a Master's in Psychology, and MBA. For over 15 years, Chris has worked in the biotechnology industry holding leadership position in many companies.

Overall, has it been relatively smooth? If not, what were some of the struggles along the way? It's never a smooth road. I am sacrificing now so I enjoy my success in the future. Managing school, work, family, and a podcast is hectic. Many weekends include doing artist interviews or editing the show. I enjoy the challenges because I love doing podcasts. PoPolitickin is a baby that I been grooming and developing throughout the years.

Please tell us about your work.

Founded in 2008, by Chris "Po" Porter, Po Politickin is a "hip hop meets psychology brand," designed to give talented artists more exposure. Po Politickin accomplishes this through a global presence, which includes a podcast, blog, and an online mixtape series. Focused on helping artists, no profits, authors, and others reach the masses, it's a home for everything worth being discussed. "Po Politickin is deeper than music", says Porter. "We view Po Politickin as a hip hop motivational brand. Our goals are for Po Politickin to help further the hip hop culture and educate our radio show's listeners with content that is both entertaining and valuable. In every show, I attempt to leave at least one piece of knowledge that the listener could digest and use in their daily lives."

If you had to go back in time and start over, would you have done anything differently?

Yes, I would have focused more on my YouTube page, and made more video content. Everything else has been trial and error. I am enjoying the journey of discovering what works and what does not work.
