Background Checks

Purpose and Scope

CVFFD Elysium strives to provide a safe and reliable platform for individuals seeking social connections, friendships, and potential relationships. As part of this commitment, we may conduct background checks on certain users to verify their eligibility for our services and to enhance the overall safety of our community.

Premium Matches: Prior to any introduction to our premium clients, CVFFD Elysium will conduct a background check on interested parties. By agreeing to be matched with a premium client, you explicitly consent to such a check.

Free Clients: CVFFD Elysium may, at its sole discretion, request random background checks when free clients wish to meet each other. If you do not consent to a background check, you will be unable to proceed with certain matches or events.

Types of Information Collected

Background checks may include:

- Criminal Records: Such as convictions, charges, or pending cases related to violence, assault, stalking, abuse, or other forms of misconduct.
- Publicly Available Data: Including social media or other internet-based searches for relevant information.
- Verification of Identity: We may request identification documents (e.g., driver's license, passport) to confirm your age and identity.

Use of Third-Party Services

We partner with reputable third-party providers (e.g., Checkr) to conduct background checks. These third-party providers may collect and process your personal information solely for the purpose of performing the checks. Any data shared with these providers is handled in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, and contractual agreements that ensure your information is protected.

Data Retention and Disposal

Background check results are kept only for as long as necessary to evaluate a user's eligibility for our services. In general, CVFFD Elysium will retain these records for no more than ten (10) days from the date of receipt, after which they will be securely deleted. If a background check reveals a disqualifying history or concern, CVFFD Elysium reserves the right to keep a record of the finding for the purpose of enforcing a permanent ban on the user.

Disqualification and Removal

Prohibited Histories: Individuals with a verified history of violent crime, assault, stalking, abuse, or other misconduct toward another person will be deemed ineligible.

Right to Remove: CVFFD Elysium retains the right to remove a user from our platform and/or decline to provide future services if background checks reveal a concerning or disqualifying history. This may also include barring users from attending our in-person events or accessing any of our digital services.

No Guarantee of Safety

While we take precautions to screen users for violent or assaultive behavior, background checks and other safety measures cannot guarantee an individual's actions or eliminate all risks. We encourage all users to exercise personal judgment and take necessary safety precautions when interacting with other users online or in person. Any interactions you choose to engage in are ultimately your responsibility.

Accuracy of Information

User Responsibility: You are responsible for providing accurate and current information for any background check. Failure to provide accurate information or to cooperate with the background check process may result in disqualification.

No Warranty on Third-Party Data: CVFFD Elysium does not control the records or data held by external agencies or data sources. We cannot guarantee the completeness or accuracy of information obtained from third-party services.
