

SPORTSMAN'S WORLD ANNUAL MEETING

Stephen Kennedy

Stephen Kennedy is a father of two very smart sons, a grandfather, the owner of a German Shepard dog, an amateur astronomer, astrophotographer, and an attorney. His agenda is to continue the traditions of the SPOA while working to reduce costs. He believes the association should work to encourage homeowners to voluntarily reduce light pollution (and save money) by turning off unnecessary lights after a prescribed time late at night.