Year Two (2026)

Welcome
To Year
TWO!

Ray in the Morning Local Conversations

Ray in the Morning continues to be a strong connection point for the local community, bringing conversations with local guests into the studio weekday mornings from 6am to 9am. From weekly and monthly contributors to one-time special guests, Raydio keeps listeners connected to local businesses, organizations, events, and the people making a difference in the community.

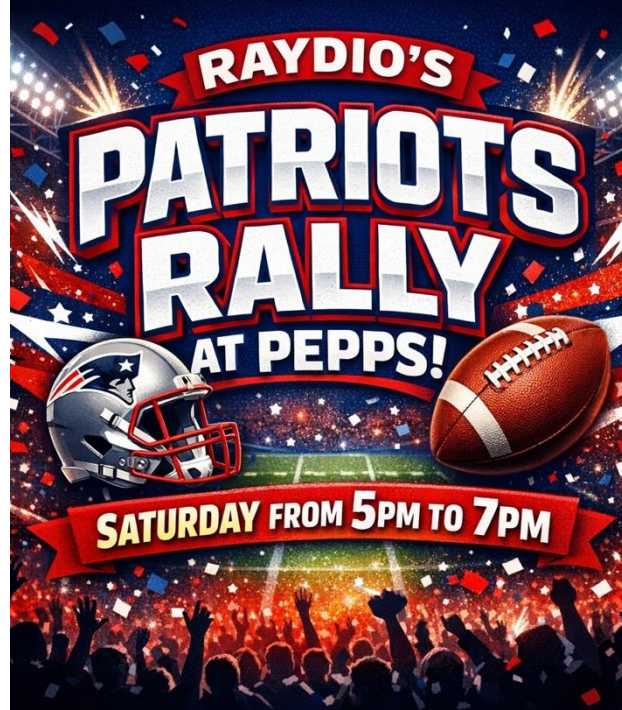

Super Bowl of Snacks Contest

Raydio's Super Bowl of Snacks was a two-week community contest where listeners voted for their favorite game day snacks to crown the ultimate champion. The grand prize included catering for 12 people for a Super Bowl party from Oliva's Market, Catering & Gourmet Gifts, plus a 43-inch "extra" TV to complete the ultimate game day setup.

Raydio's Patriots Pepp Rally

Raydio's Patriots Pep Rally at Pepperoncini's brought fans together before the Super Bowl for music, prizes, and plenty of team spirit. Raydio played rally music, gave away prizes, and helped get everyone fired up and ready for game day with a fun community kickoff.

Raydio's Rub You The Right Way

Raydio's Rub You The Right Way became a flavorful local favorite, created in partnership with Berry Hill Farm. This signature spice blend with a Caribbean flair was perfect for grilling and everyday cooking, with a portion of every sale supporting the Upton Food Pantry, making it a great way to season food and give back to the community.

Shop Small With Sam

2026 welcomed the launch of Shop Small With Sam, a new Sunday morning show on Raydio dedicated to supporting local businesses, makers, and community entrepreneurs. The show highlights small shops, local vendors, and the people behind them, helping connect listeners with the businesses that make the community unique.

Fuel Up Friday

Fuel Up Friday is still going strong as one of Raydio's favorite weekly community features. Every Friday, Raydio surprises a local workplace with coffee and muffins from Honey Dew Donuts on Prospect Street, helping fuel the staff and spotlight the hardworking people who keep the community moving.

Raydio's St. Patrick's Day Treasure Hunt at Bernat Antiques was a blast!

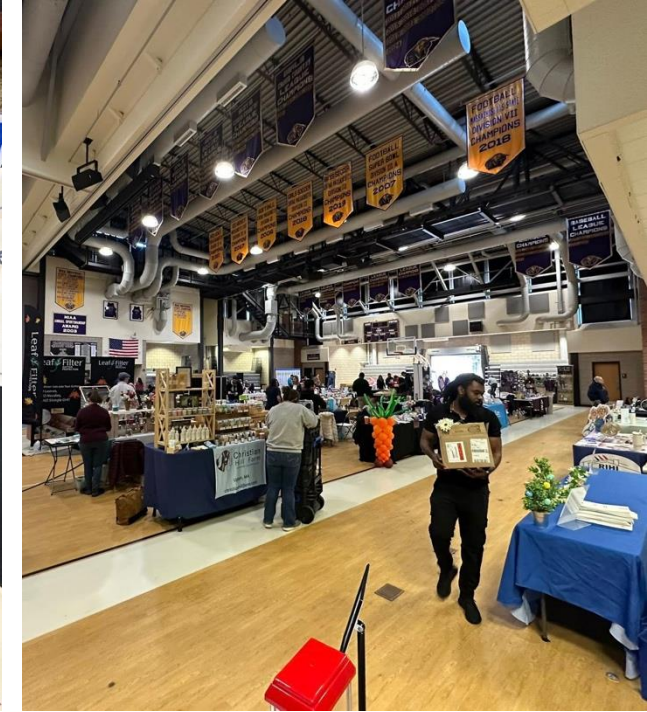

On the Sunday before St. Patrick's Day, treasure hunters explored the hidden gems inside Bernat Antiques in Uxbridge, MA, searching for small pots of gold marked with "RAYDIO." Those who struck gold walked away with a $50 gift certificate to Bernat Antiques. It was a weekend full of fun, luck, and plenty of treasure!

WooSox Media Day at Polar Park

Raydio had the chance to attend WooSox Media Day at Polar Park, spending the day with players, media, and the team behind the scenes. It was a great opportunity to chat with players, gather content for listeners, and enjoy some ballpark hospitality, including lunch at the park.

Tri-County Regional Chamber Family Fest & Home Show

Raydio was proud to be part of the Tri-County Regional Chamber Family Fest & Home Show, bringing fun, games, and prizes to the event. It was a great day spent connecting with the community, meeting families, and hanging out with some of our favorite local businesses and partners.

Milford Humane Society Chocolate Festival

When the Milford Humane Society was looking for a little extra spark for their annual Chocolate Festival, Raydio stepped up to provide the entertainment. Helping bring energy, fun, and community spirit to the event, Raydio was proud to support a great local cause while adding to one of the sweetest events of the year.

Marathon Monday at the Start Line

Once again, Raydio was at the start line on Marathon Monday alongside the John Warren Lodge, helping support the Hopkinton Masonic Benevolent Fund. This year, Raydio brought local sponsors to the event to help raise money for the fund, creating great visibility for local businesses while supporting an organization that helps local seniors and children in need. Back in the studio, we treated listeners to a full morning of commercial-free music that included shout outs to local runners.

Scenes From A Local Restaurant

Scenes From A Local Restaurant, airing Wednesday nights at 8pm on Raydio, continued to grow in 2026 by taking the show on the road more than ever. Instead of just talking about great local restaurants, Raydio and Rich Cyr brought the conversations directly to the tables, recording on location, highlighting local eateries, and giving listeners a true taste of the community.

Love on the Rocks
Boozy Bingo Nights
Love on the Rocks, Raydio's relationship show airing Friday nights at 10pm, brought the fun off the mic and into the community with a series of themed Boozy Bingo Nights throughout 2026. Each event gave fans a midweek night out filled with laughs, drinks, prizes, and plenty of entertaining chaos.

Raydio's Pet of the Week

Raydio's Pet of the Week gives local pets their moment to shine each Thursday on Facebook. From dogs and cats to all kinds of lovable animals, the feature celebrates community pets with fun photos, personality-filled answers, and plenty of local smiles.

Tri-County Regional Chamber Involvement

In 2026, Ray was appointed to the Tri-County Regional Chamber, strengthening Raydio's connection to the local business community. As part of that involvement, Raydio helps promote chamber members, attends ribbon cuttings, and provides coverage that highlights new businesses, local growth, and community success stories.

Community Event Sponsorships & Raffle Baskets

Raydio proudly supports local community events through sponsorships and raffle basket donations that help bring people together. From the Hopedale Fairy Walk to Cub Scout pancake breakfasts and countless local fundraisers, Raydio stays involved by showing up, supporting the cause, and helping create memorable community moments.

Mother's Little Helper Mother's Day Contest

Raydio's Mother's Little Helper Mother's Day Contest added a little humor and a lot of fun to Mother's Day. Listeners submitted their funniest reasons why Mom "needs" wine for a chance to win a special prize for two at a California Uncorked wine class at Total Wine & More, giving local moms a well-deserved toast.
