

Base Camp Pong and Axe

Axe League Code of Conduct

As a member of IATF (International Axe Throwing Federation), Base Camp will follow and uphold IATF Rules and Regulations. As a participant in an IATF League at Base Camp, you will be expected to follow both IATF Rules and Regulations (iatf.com/rules-guidelines) as well as Base Camp's Code of Conduct.

It is everyone's responsibility to follow these rules and to show respect while at Base Camp. Respect for safety, respect of property and respect for each other.

Discrimination of ANY kind will NOT be tolerated! This includes but is not limited to: race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental ability, or religious beliefs.

Other Actions and Behaviors that will NOT be tolerated include:

- ◆ Use of illegal drugs or liquor
- ◆ Excessive use of permitted alcoholic beverage
- ◆ Abusive behavior or actions
- ◆ ANY type of harassment or violence, including physical and verbal
- ◆ ANY aggressive behavior

If you experience or become aware of any of these behaviors mentioned, we encourage you to let us know immediately! Your safety as well as the safety of our staff is very important to us; if we are unaware of negative behaviors then we can't correct them.

Base Camp Pong and Axe reserves the right to enforce the above Code of Conduct with possible elimination or suspension from League and removal from our facilities, in instances where rules are not followed.

By signing, you agree to follow Base Camp's Code of Conduct as well as comply with IATF Rules and Regulations.
