Dear Superintendent of Schools:

The Western Zone (WZ) of the Retired Educators of New York (RENY), formerly New York State Retired Teachers' Association (NYSRTA) is pleased to announce the availability of the RENY Hudson-Kramer Memorial Grant, a $1000 grant to be awarded in each of RENY's ten zones. The grant is given in memory of Ross C. Hudson and Florence Coulter Kramer who were public school teachers and outstanding members of RENY. The grant's purpose is to fund an innovative project or program in a New York State public school.

To be eligible to compete for the grant, an educator must be a full-time teacher or administrator in a public school in the Western Zone (Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Erie, Genesee, and Niagara Counties). The full grant may be used for any number of educational program /projects in the 2021-2022 school year such as (but not limited to) improving student achievement, self-esteem or behavior, or addressing current issues such as teen pregnancy, drug use, health concerns, bullying, etc.

Entries will be judged by a team of WZ members with the grant winner to be announced the week of September 6, 2021. We would be grateful for you sharing this information with your teaching staff, along with the attached application form.

GRANT APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY JUNE 11, 2021 and sent to:
Maria Hager, 898 Geer Road, Arcade, New York, 14009-9737

With thanks for your co-operation and assistance,

Ronald Czapla, Chairman
WZ Teacher Grant Committee
