Leading Through Uncertainty: The Next Chapter in CU Governance

Directors Conference & Board Liaison Workshop

San Diego, CA | December 7–10, 2025

Experience fresh perspectives, shared learning, and build board savvy—all set against the stunning San Diego sunset!

From big-picture strategy to practical takeaways you can apply immediately, CUES Directors Conference equips your credit union with individual director development and whole-board alignment.

Whether you're navigating this journey solo or bringing your full board along, CUES helps you make the most of your time in this stateside paradise—including support for hosting a board meeting onsite! Just reach out to us at events@cues.org after you register.

Our dual-track format returns, offering governance professionals both dedicated development at CUES Directors Conference general sessions and specialized training during CUES Board Liaison Workshop—a great way to strengthen your entire governance team!

Uncertain times create the greatest opportunities—learn how to lead and thrive through change! Register now at content.cues.org/DC and content.cues.org/BLW.
