LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

2022 EDITION ISSUE 510

Dear friends in Christ,

I am writing this during my last week as the pastor at American Lutheran, Jesup and Zion Lutheran, Jubilee. On May 31, I begin serving as the Director for Evangelical Mission, which is an Assistant to the Bishop position in the Northeastern Iowa Synod. I am sad to leave these two lovely congregations and yet also excited for what lies ahead.

My family and I plan to move to Waverly, where the Northeastern Iowa Synod Office is located, but as of this writing, we do not have a house in Waverly to move to yet, so we plan to rent the parsonage from American Lutheran for a few months this summer. After May 29, I will no longer be your pastor, so I will not perform any pastoral acts (preaching, worship leadership, funerals, weddings, hospital visits, etc). However, you can still say “hi” if you see us around!

I am incredibly grateful for my time with you. These last couple of years have been incredibly stressful for everyone, and I’m very grateful that both congregations approached the changes necessitated by the pandemic with grace, flexibility, and understanding. Both congregations approached the pastor sharing contract with grace and flexibility as well, and I think that has helped the partnership between congregations to flourish. I am grateful to have served two congregations that see that there are things we can do with others that we couldn’t do by ourselves. You recognize the importance of connection to the wider church within the ELCA and with other denominations. You are very generous with supporting the mission of God beyond the walls of the congregation, supporting ministries like Camp EWALU, Lutheran Services in Iowa, and Food Pantries.

I have noticed over the past year that the American and Zion Jubilee have different congregational personalities, and strengths in different areas. As these two congregations begin the call process together, I would encourage you to reflect on the strengths of the different congregations, and think about whether there are ways that each congregation can enrich the ministry of the other congregation.

God is truly at work in, among, and through the people of American and Zion Jubilee. I feel very blessed to have been able to serve as your pastor!

Christ’s peace,
Pr. Kristen
