MORNING PRAYER

Righteous God, let your compassion come speedily to meet us, for we are humbled in our need. Our spirits are poured out like flowing waters, and there is no one to aid us in our pain. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name. Let your compassion come speedily to us once more, that all may see and know where true help lies. We ask that you hear us now and in our time of silent prayer ...

GROW

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.
