Dear Victoria,

Enclosed is a letter received today from the IRS Taxpayer Advocate Service confirming the good news about the inquiry I made on your behalf.

I know this has been a frustrating experience for you and I am pleased that it has been resolved favorably and your foundation has been awarded 501(c)3 non profit status.

It was my pleasure to have been of assistance to you and I hope you will always feel free to call on me whenever I can be of service to you. For more information, or to stay informed on important issues, I encourage you to sign up for my electronic newsletter at www.desantis.house.gov.

Sincerely,

Ron DeSantis

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

Sincerely,

Director, Exempt Organizations
