Dear Redeemed and Love Saints of Grace!

When do you show people your bathroom?

A curious question, to be honest. I stumbled upon a podcast by two LCMS pastors in Arizona who started their conversation with that one question. As they bantered back and forth, they gave the usual answers. Like when someone asks. But then the conversation turned when one pastor said, "after you remodel. Because that is when you are most excited."

I thought about that line as I walked through my house, as I gazed through each room. I noticed the lack of excitement. Don't get me wrong, I love my house. I love everything about it. But I also know where all the faults are. Faults that I am proud of but also faults I am not so proud of. Such as I am very proud of the coloring the kids have done on the wall but I am not very proud of the burn marks found closely to the oven. Yet, it is these faults that make it challenging sometimes to open the door, to let others in.

I think it is the same as the church. Our church. Let's not get it wrong. We love our church. We love everything about it. The families that gather around our pews. The memories we made in the various ministry events, whether it is VBS, day or summer camps, just sitting in the pew hearing the great news of Jesus for you. There is a lot we love about our church. But there are also faults. The spots and stains on the walls and carpet. The typos found in pastor's article and sometimes on the screens or bulletin. We are very aware of all these things. Some of these we are proud of. I once remember a visitor remarking fondly over seeing a mark on one of these Jesus statues remembering the day it happened. Others we are not. Just like we are aware in our homes, we are hesitant to open the door and let others in.

But have you noticed that when we are excited about an event, we over look the faults of our house? Its seems like when the kids have birthdays or we have people bring their dogs over the coloring on the wall becomes a fun story or instead of shame, there is a uniqueness about the time the dogs turning the stove on and caught a box full of diapers on fire. And in a quick panic accidentally knocking a fully-on-fire diaper on the floor which left the wood floor burnt. These no longer cause hindrance but a chance to embrace those in my home.

But what about our church? What excitement level would it take for us to overlook our faults and open the doors for others in come in? I know what my answer is and will always be. The pure excitement of knowing that every time we gather Jesus is with us. The same Jesus whom God the Father sent in the flesh, to be born of a woman. He comes to be with us. In those 60 wonderous minutes, we are being taught by Jesus his grace, mercy and love for the children of God. We

MILES OF DIMES - Grace Camp was purchased in 1988. The Miles of Dimes project was started in 1990 as an effort to help pay for the facilities which everyone enjoys. There is a "Miles of Dimes" collection jar located on the Welcome Center. Leave your "dimes" or any donation you may want to make and your donation will be used to benefit the camp facilities. Thank you for your continued support.

Pastor Eric wishes to keep you all in prayer. Please contact him when there is hospitalization, death in your family, you would like him to visit, or you have recently become homebound. Thank you!

DAY CAMP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Again, this summer we have the awesome opportunity to share the love of Jesus with children from DeWitt and the surround communities through our Day Camps. We can use help at the camps listed below:

Arts & Crafts Camp – June 18th 8am – 11 am
Arts & Crafts Camp – June 18th 1pm – 4 pm

Please contact Mark Sperry or the church office to let us know at which camps you will be able to lend a hand. Thank you and God's blessings!

receive his body and blood. We get to have the full assurance of His forgiveness and unconditional love. WE get to leave knowing how much God the Father loves us.

Sharing the love of Jesus is a very exciting thing for me. I try very hard every week to share that with you all. The very love that Jesus has for us, covers all of the faults that our church has. Who cares if there is a finger missing in the shepherd Jesus or bb size holes in the windows above the alter. Or fragments of gold fish crackers left in the seat of pew. Or typos or pastor accidentally says the wrong times for meetings. We get to every single week, and because of Pentecost, every single day get to be with God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. How exciting is that! That truly is something that allows us to embrace those around us and share the love of Christ with them!

In the service of Jesus,
Pastor Eric

IMPORTANT - Deadline for submitting articles for the July newsletter is June 15th.

A Prayer for Fathers

F IS FOR FAITH
 Help Dad to put his full trust in you, O LORD. Give him an unshakeable faith in Your Word. Strengthen his desire to read it, memorize it, and order his life according to Your precepts. Remind of Your promise to work all things together for good for those who love You and are called according to Your purpose. Keep him faithful, alert, and standing firm. Psalm 25:2; Psalm 100:97-100; Romans 8:28; 1 Corinthians 16:13

A IS FOR ATTENTION
 God, help Dad focus his attention on what truly matters. Teach him prioritize, to number his days, and to invest his time wisely. Guard him against harmful or ungodly distractions. Give him eyes to see with an eternal perspective. Fix his mind fixed on what's true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, excellent, commendable and praiseworthy. Hebrews 3:1; Psalm 90:12; 121:7; Colossians 3:1-3; Philippians 4:8

T IS FOR TESTIMONY
 Make Dad a man of integrity. Keep him mindful of the fact that others are watching, particularly the children you've entrusted to his care. Give him a good name and grant him the wisdom, discernment, and understanding he'll need to lead his family well. May everything he does bring honor to You and point others to Jesus. Prov. 28:18; Psalm 119:1-2; Hebrews 12:1; Prov. 2:6; 22:1; 1 Corinthians 10:31

H IS FOR HEALTH
 LORD, keep Dad in good health. Make his bones and muscles strong. Preserve his strength and vitality. Grant him good sleep and give him the rest he needs. Help him make good choices in areas that affect his health and either protect him against sickness and disease or give him grace to endure physical afflictions in a way that glorifies You. 3 John 1:2; Prov. 3:1-8; Is. 40:29-41; Psa. 127:2; 2 Cor. 12:8-10

E IS FOR EMPLOYMENT
 God, give Dad meaningful work to do and a sense of purpose. Help him enjoy & excel at his job. Make him a wise steward of the gifts, skills, talents, opportunities and money you've entrusted to him. May others be supportive and appreciative of the good work he does. Psalm 90:17; Ecclesiastes 5:18-19; Proverbs 22:29; Luke 12:42-43

R IS FOR RELATIONSHIPS
 Bless Dad's relationships, LORD. Fortify his family ties. Provide friends who uplift & encourage him. Help him get along with colleagues and coworkers. Most of all, strengthen his relationship to You. Give him a love for Jesus that spills out on everyone he meets. Psalm 128:1-4; Prov. 17:17; Mark 12:30-31
