Part V: Formal Training for Your Dog

The independent nature of the Kangal dog can make them challenging in obedience training. Working dogs can occasionally take 2 to 3 years to reach maturity.

1. We require a commitment to attend at least 1 group training class with your puppy (private lessons are an option). What training facility do you plan to use? (Name and phone number.)
2. Summarize the training methods you would use to train your dog, and to correct behaviors that you don't like.
3. What sort of training (formal or informal) do you plan to do with your Kangal Dog?
4. Who would you contact if you needed help with a behavior problem with your dog?
5. Will you agree to return the dog to us (Skyfiber Kangals) if you ever reach the decision that you cannot keep it yourself? _____

Part VI: If you obtain a Kangal Dog from us

1. We require puppies that are going to be used as companions or working dogs (i.e. not for breeding) to be spayed or neutered. This is for the best interests of you as the owner, and for the dog (who will lead a much less frustrating existence, and be less likely to escape, get injured, or become aggressive with other dogs).

- YES, that's fine.
NO, I want an intact dog because: _____

2. Under what circumstances would you not keep this dog? (divorce, move, new baby, dog's illness, owner's illness, other)

3. Are you interested in breeding Kangal Dogs? If yes, complete the following:

- a. Explain your previous experience and your reasons for wanting to breed:
- b. If we agree to sell you a breeding dog, will you agree not to breed your dog without approval from us? Yes or No
- c. If you breed your dog, how do you plan to obtain homes for the puppies?
- d. We require future breeders of our dogs to adhere to the KDCA Code of Ethics for breeders (www.kangalclub.com/files/breeders-code-of-ethics.pdf) and to remain members of the KDCA. Can you agree to this? Or, is there some reason you would be uncomfortable with this?

4. Will you agree to keep in touch with us, the breeders, for the lifetime of your Kangal Dog, to consult us promptly about problems (even if embarrassing or difficult), to share pictures and stories, and be available to talk to other prospective Kangal Dog owners in your area? Or, is there some reason you would be uncomfortable with this?

Please list your veterinarian(s), primary vet first:
