FLYING DUTCHMAN

Jon Hermens (25), from the Netherlands, broke the world record for 10 miles sixteen days after his splendid 10,000m (27:46.6) behind Brendan Foster and Frank Shorter in London. Running at Papendal on September 14th, he passed 3000 in 8:14.6, 5000 in 14:17.6, 10,000 in 28:38.8, 15,000 in 42:54.8 and 10 miles in a world record 45:57.6 (previously 46:04.2 by Belgium's Willy Polleunis), and carried on to reach 20,000m in 57:48.4—a tantalising 4sec outside Gatton Roelants' world record. Hermens now holds Dutch records at

SOUTH PACIFIC GAMES

The fifth South Pacific Games held at the John F. Kennedy track, Tumon, Guam from August 4th to 9th saw a rare gathering of athletes from the Pacific island territories. The Games were held in wet conditions throughout but this failed to dampen enthusiasm and there was some really good competition.
