Fiona ROBERTSON

Who the masterclass is for

This 90-minute, live online masterclass is for leaders and teams who want to take action on culture and need a place to start.

It provides a safe place to learn what culture really is, what it isn't (spoiler alert – it isn't employee engagement) and how it actually works.

It gives participants a chance to think about and discuss how the core concepts relate to their business and ask questions to increase clarity.

It's designed for leaders and teams who want to dip their toes in the water of culture before they decide whether to jump in.

Culture change may not be easy, but it can be simple.

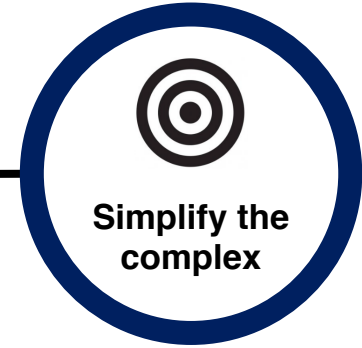

What the masterclass will achieve

Culture is one of the most widely discussed and widely misunderstood concepts in business today. It's impossible to have a sensible conversation about it without a shared understanding of what you're discussing. Shared language is essential to make any progress at all.

If you're living inside the Matrix, and you don't know it, you won't see anything. Once you understand how culture really works, you see it everywhere and begin to understand the pervasive impact it has on every aspect of organisational life.

Culture change isn't easy, but it can be simple. One of the reasons so many organisations fail to make progress on culture is because it has been vastly overcomplicated, which often relegates it to the 'too hard' basket. If you're looking for clarity, you'll find it here.

What the 90-minute masterclass looks like

Presentation
(25-30 minutes)

Fiona presents live via Zoom, distilling everything she has learned about culture in her 30+ year career, including what culture is, what it isn't and how it works in the real world.

Break out room conversations
(25-30 minutes)

Participants move into online break-out rooms in groups of three or four and are invited to answer a series of questions about how the content they've just heard applies to their situation. This discussion solidifies the concepts in a way that listening alone can never achieve.

Facilitated discussion and Q&A
(25-30 minutes)

Participants return to the main Zoom space for a group discussion. Fiona answers questions and clarifies the concepts she has shared with concrete examples that are directly relevant for the participants. Those who are interested in taking further action have the option of scheduling a 1:1 follow up discussion with Fiona to explore next steps.

About Fiona

An expert in leadership and culture, Fiona holds an MBA from London Business School and is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and the Institute of Executive Coaching and Leadership.

Testimonials

JC

Fiona drove the culture diagnostic for Monash College and very effectively engaged our executives and Board in the process. The result has been used ever since to guide our strategic planning and priorities. She expertly designed and facilitated the strategic planning retreat for senior leaders and the annual leadership and strategy day for all people leaders. She's a compelling presenter who combines deep expertise with warmth and authority to ensure every participant was motivated to take action. She has played a key role in the shift of our culture.

I can't speak highly enough of Fiona and the impact she has! Commercial in her approach, she's an absolute guru on culture change and how leadership teams can pull this lever in a variety of ways to drive growth/profitability as well as employee engagement and employment brand. Her secret weapon is her disarming nature coupled with an ability to draw spot-on insights during conversations or team interactions, wrapped up by her deep knowledge on culture change - both theoretical and from practical experience. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Fiona as a leading culture change consultant in Melbourne.

Fiona's dynamic approach to engaging the business in the process of cultural change ensures everybody gets on the same page. Advocacy for change from within the business builds momentum and Fiona gets the connections really well, and that's the key. Delivering key messages and engaging with the leaders to get them to help build the "moment" is a great and rare skill.
