The Region:

The IABBCC Region will consist of tournaments in Iowa or those taking place in any near-by area that are not a part of an existing tournament series.

The Timeline:

Tournament Series Scoring:

Coaches will receive points for each tournament they attend based on the following:

All participants receive 1 point per tournament attended, regardless of their results

In a tournament with ten coaches or more, the top ten finishers will receive points based on their final position. A 1st place finish will be worth 10 points, a 2nd place finish will be worth 9 points on down to a 10th place finish being worth 1 point.

Should there be fewer than 10 coaches, the top coach's score would be equal to the total number of participants and the rest would decrease as usual.

As a bonus, each finisher gets +1 point per 10 attendees at the event beyond the 1st 10 (Example: in a 32 coach tournament participants would gain an additional 2 points)

Organizer bonus: For organizers who do not play in their tournament, they will receive 1 point +1 per 10 (rounded down, minimum of 1) coaches in the tournament.

Coaches will gain 1 additional point for winning certain awards during an event. These would be for Most Touchdowns Scored, Most Casualties Dealt, and for Best Painted. For purposes of calculating these bonus points, we would not use the 'share the wealth' system (even if that system is used to give out the actual awards).

Overall Ranking

Coaches will be awarded points based on their performance in each IABBCC event that they participate in. Only the Top 4 tournament points total of each player will be tallied for the purpose of awards.

There is no minimum number of tournaments that a participating coach must attend, however in order to receive an award, the Coach must be a member of the NAF.

Tiebreakers:

Tiebreakers for any award are in the following order:

- Most First Place Finishes
- The Coach who used the most different races during the series
- Overall cumulative score for the season (counts all events)
- The tied coach's head to head record in the seasons IABBCC matches
- Most events attended for the year
- Tournament Series Organizers Discretion

Prizes:

There will be awards for the top three finishing coaches during the season as well as for the top finishing Stunty Coach, The Coach with the Most Total Casualties, and The Coach with the Most Total Touchdowns. A single coach may only win one of these awards.

There will also be the following additional award for the best totals with specific groups of teams as follows:

Chaotic Conqueror! - The Coach with the highest point total with (Chaos Chosen, Chaos Renegades,

How to get tournament approval:

For Inclusion in the series, the tournament organizer must submit their request to join at least 30 days before their tournament date. Priority approval is given to those who give the most notice for a given weekend. Please make the request either by messaging Three Die Block on Facebook or by email: iowabbcc@gmail.com

For a tournament to be approved, it must be approved by the NAF and should not be on the same, the previous, of the following weekend of another pre-approved tournament unless the competing tournaments are separated by a significant distance. The distance between the tournaments, and the time between tournaments is a guideline, not a rule, and can be reviewed by the Tournament Series Organizer on an individual basis.

Blood Bowl variations (Sevens, Dungeon Bowl, Gutter Bowl, Blood Bowl Drafts, etc) may be allowed with prior approval.

Result Submissions:

Tournament results must be reported promptly after your tournament ends. Required result information will be: Ranking, Name, Race, and NAF ID, TDs (for and against) and Casualties (for and against). Tournaments that do not submit results within 2 weeks of the tournament ending may be left out of the standings. Send all information (or Score File) to iowabbcc@gmail.com
