ARMCHAIR EXPLORER

TRAVEL INSPIRATION + YOUR IMAGINATION

In this week's edition of Armchair Explorer, you can read about spending the perfect weekend in Vancouver and learn what it's like to take a hot air balloon tour. But wait ... there's more! You can also find new virtual tours and top cities for music lovers.

"But wait ... there's more" is also an apt way to describe the exclusive benefits and complimentary amenities travel agents can often secure for our clients on cruises and at hotels around the world. So you get a perfectly planned vacation that exceeds expectations and more — possibly a free shore excursion or complimentary spa credits.

U.S. DESTINATIONS FOR MUSIC LOVERS

For some travelers, a city's music scene is more appealing than its museums, restaurants and shops. You look forward to visiting the famous ballrooms and bars where your favorite live albums were performed, and to listen to modern music in historic venues. Whether you prefer rock, jazz or country, these five cities are our personal faves.

Real stories on how travel advisors aid their clients.

"We never used a travel agent before but decided to for our first overseas vacation. Best decision ever! Unfortunately, our trip was right in the middle of the COVID outbreak. We verified that it was still safe to travel the morning of our flight through the State Dept. and Embassy websites and decided to proceed. Bad choice ... on our first night the US implemented the travel ban and it was unclear how that would affect US citizens. We called our travel agent and she took care of everything! She spent four hours rebooking our flight and got us home without a problem. She even checked us into our flight. Thanks to her, we were able to spend a full day sightseeing without any worry. We saw a lot of people at our hotel and in the airport in a state of panic ... not us, all thanks to Jackie. After we returned home, she followed up with us to ensure we were safe and all went well. To make things even better, she got us a credit for the canceled nights at the hotel. Can't wait to book again with Jackie!"
