

WOMEN'S MINISTRY CHARTER INFORMATION

What does it mean to be a women's ministry group chartered with the Kentucky Ministry Network?

When a group fills out the charter application & turns in their charter dues ($1 per member of their women's ministry), you can be chartered.

Why should your women's ministry group charter?

Throughout the year you can compile all the giving of your women's ministry group & it can be claimed with your church and districts total missions giving with the Assemblies of God. All giving from your women's ministry group, including: AG World Missions , U.S. Missions, Compassion Ministries, District Giving, Local Projects for the church, and Community Benevolence.

Current charter groups & new church women's groups interested in filling out the charter application, can send their charter information to :
