Profile

I am a versatile voice over artist with a natural flair for animation, audiobooks, video games, and character-driven storytelling. I consistently provide innovative ideas, clear articulation, emotional depth, and a wide vocal range. I am trained in a variety of dialects as well as using the Laban Technique to create memorable characters with well-written storylines. My voice is warm, engaging, and adaptable. I am capable of delivering a wide range of tones: from youthful and energetic to calm and authoritative.
