TAT Events have several tournaments running throughout the week each with their own format and prize funds making for multiple ways to cash at the TAT. The main event has several 3 Game Qualifying squads per day where bowlers try to make a 1 in 8 cut in their divisions to the Sunday finals. In the main finals, prize money increases at least $200 every game you advance until 1 bowler from each division remains to bowl off for $20,000, the TAT Crystal Cup, and possibly the TAT Progressive Pot, now at over $30,000!

The TAT Main Finals

TAT Finals are on February 7th at 9:00AM.

1 in 8 bowlers make the cut to the finals in each division and earn a minimum of $500. Money increases at least $200 for advancing to the next round. A 2nd bowler makes the finals with just 6 more entries.

In all rounds of the finals, bowlers play 1 game against other bowlers in their division, who are also on the same pair of lanes.

In the first 4 rounds, if there are 4 or 5 on a pair, the 2 bowlers with the highest 1-game score will advance to the next round. If there are 3 bowlers on a pair, 1 will advance. 6 on a pair, 3 advance.

In the round before the Top 5, there will only be 1 pair of lanes for each division and 1 player will advance from each division – guaranteed $5,000 and shooting for $20,000 & The TAT Progressive Pot!

The Top 5 is made up of the 5 Division Champions. They bowl 1 game on the same pair with scores determining final positions.
