Dane County Sheriff's Office
Law Supplemental Narrative

On 02/24/21 at about 2:50pm, Detective Clint Seltzner and I met with [REDACTED] at her residence and I returned all property under the above listed tags to her.

[REDACTED] was cooperative and signed the DCSO Property release form which was later scanned to this case by DCSO Property room staff.

CONSENT FORMS:

I discussed obtaining written consent from [REDACTED] for the following items/tasks:

To allow DCSO to enter 2016 Hyundai Tucson to retrieve garage remote and allow Progressive Insurance to view vehicle.

To allow DCSO to process vehicle to include window analysis, video, measurements and towing as needed to complete the processing.

[REDACTED] signed Consent to Search forms for the above described requests.

EVIDENCE:

I packaged the consent forms as evidence and stored them in PSB Evidence locker B-22 under the following tags:

DCSO Property Tag #44706:

To allow DCSO to enter 2016 Hyundai Tucson to retrieve garage remote and allow Progressive Insurance to view vehicle.

DCSO Property Tag #44707:

To allow DCSO to process vehicle to include window analysis, video, measurements and towing as needed to complete the processing.

INSURANCE AGENT UPDATE:

On 02/28/22, Det. Tim Blanke updated me that Progressive Insurance had viewed the Tucson. I updated [REDACTED] by text that her insurance company had viewed the car to assist with her claim.

ATTACHMENT:

Copies of the consent forms are scanned as an attachment to this report.
