

FLO
LANGUAGE CONSULTING

MIAMI, FL

FLO Language Consulting was formed in 2022 by a group of experienced language coaches with over 20 years of industry experience. We combine practical, objectives-based learning with customized programs meant to meet the needs of adult, professional language learners. We believe that language and communication training are essential for companies and individuals, and provide dynamic coaching options across industry, language, and level to meet these comprehensive challenges head-on.

Over the years, our group has evolved into a premiere provider of personalized language products and communication services both locally and abroad via our virtual and on-site training options. Our combined portfolio is composed of internationally recognized corporate clientele.

As we expand our knowledge base and service range, we will continue to provide the success that only effective communication can provide. FLO is committed to creating lasting language solutions for individuals, groups, and companies worldwide.
