Domestic Violence Awareness Month

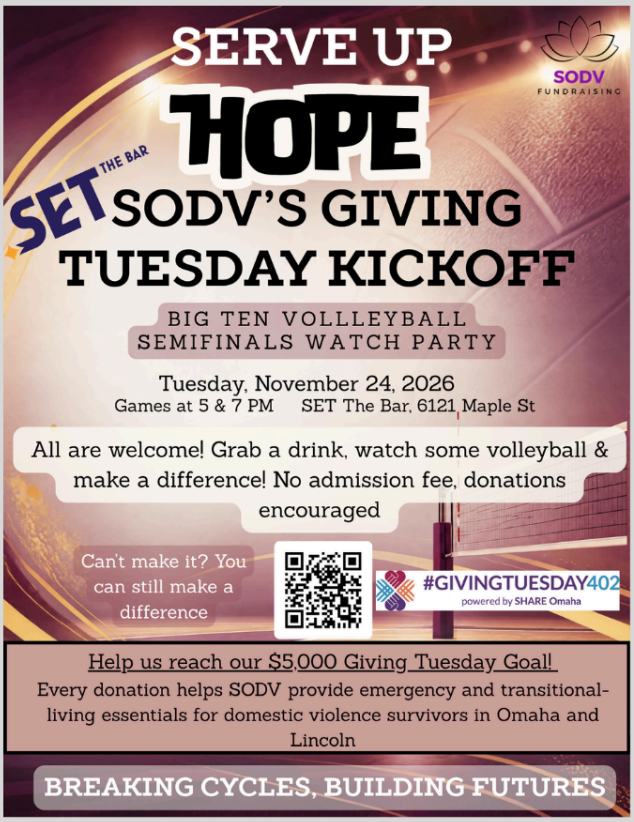

Our Communities Showed Up

October is the domestic violence awareness month and there were several events to raise awareness. Omega Psi Phi hosted an awareness walk on October 10, 2026. Women's center for advancement hosted a REMIX fundraiser on October 16th. On October 22, 2026 Lincoln's Friendship Home hosted a silent auction.

Upcoming Giving Tuesday Kick Off November 24, 2026

Domestic Violence in the News

Mayor John Ewing Jr. launched a domestic violence awareness campaign to assist in funding for local advocacy centers. Part of this campaign included a city wide domestic violence resource page, https://mayors-office.cityofomaha.org/domestic-violence

Local Agency Spotlight

CIRA is Nebraska's sole provider of integrated immigration legal representation and social work services at no cost for survivors unable to afford private counsel and eligible for relief through U Visas, T Visas, and VAWA self-petitions. Survivors can access CIRA through multiple pathways, including the Nebraska Immigration Legal Assistance Hotline, direct outreach, and referrals from law enforcement, prosecutors, victim-witness units, healthcare providers, and victim service organizations.
