Welcome

This is where most couples get it wrong.
They spend months planning the perfect wedding...

Then trust just anyone to capture it.

The truth is when the day is over, the only thing that brings it all back is what was captured.

The feeling.

The energy.

The moments you didn't even realise were happening.

That's what matters.

We're not here to turn your wedding into a photoshoot,

We're here to give you the space to actually live it — fully present, relaxed, and completely in it, while everything is captured with intention.

No awkward posing.

No forced moments.

No stress.

Just a seamless experience where you feel taken care of...

And everything looks exactly how it should.

If that's the kind of wedding you want, you're in the right place.

Meet Niko

Most people think they're awkward in front of the camera. They're not. They've just never been guided properly. That's the difference. From the moment we start, you're not thinking about where to stand, what to do, or how you look. You're just in it relaxed, present, and actually enjoying your day. No stiff posing. No forced moments. No pressure. Just real connection, guided in a way that feels natural... but looks incredible. Most couples say the same thing after: "We didn't even notice you were there." And that's exactly the point. I step in when needed, direct when it matters, and disappear when it doesn't so nothing feels staged, but everything is captured with intention. Behind that is 26 years of experience across fashion, art, education, and hospitality working around the world, understanding people, reading energy, and knowing exactly how to bring out the best in someone without forcing it. This isn't about turning your wedding into a photoshoot. It's about giving you the space to fully experience it while knowing everything is being captured at the highest level. The moments you expect. The ones you don't see. And the feeling of the entire day. You get to be present. I'll take care of the rest.

Testimonials

Nik & his team made us feel so comfortable in front of the camera. Their guidance helped us bring out the best in ourselves. The way they got us to talk and connect is like reverse psychology that actually works, We completely forget they were even there.. We love everything produced. Thank You

Meg & Ryan

The level of professionalism from start to finish was outstanding. The guidance and help provided was impeccable throughout the whole journey. They were like fly's on the wall the whole day. Still not sure they made us look that good! They just made us have fun together all day. Our photos are timeless & our video is like something you see in the cinema.

John & Deanna

Nik planned our whole day for us so that everything ran so smoothly, with plenty of breathing space to mingle with our guests. He made sure we got to actually take it in and enjoy the whole day with our loved ones. The "Pre Wed Shot" was so beneficial as we have never had photos before. The way he got us connected, we have never seen before at other weddings. The shots are dreamy, we have them up all over the house. Highly recommend!

Elopement

Why Trust Us With Your Elopement

Planning a wedding overseas should feel exciting... not overwhelming.

Different countries. Different languages. Different ways of doing things.

That's where I come in.

Travel hasn't just been something I've done, it's how I've built my career. For over 26 years, I've worked across weddings, fashion, and lifestyle in locations all over the world. Not just visiting, creating, collaborating, and understanding how things actually work on the ground. I speak English, Greek, and Indonesian fluently, with working knowledge of Japanese, French, and Spanish, which means no awkward miscommunication, no guesswork, and no relying on luck when it comes to your day.

From the cliffs of Uluwatu in Bali, to the islands of Greece, the Amalfi Coast, the French Riviera, and beyond, these aren't just bucket list locations to me. They're places I know, understand, and know how to move within.

That matters more than you think.

Because when you're overseas, things don't always go to plan. Timelines shift. Vendors interpret things differently.

Small missteps turn into stress quickly.

You don't feel that with us.

I know how to read the environment, adapt in real time, and keep everything flowing, while you stay present, relaxed, and actually enjoying what you came there for.

With a global network of trusted vendors, creatives, and local contacts, you're not navigating this alone.

You're stepping into something that's already handled.

I've spent years building relationships in these locations, not just turning up for a job, but creating real connections with the people behind the scenes who make everything happen.

That means smoother communication, better collaboration, and a level of trust that simply doesn't exist when you're starting from scratch in another country.

I understand the subtle cultural differences, the timing, the expectations, the things most people don't even realise matter until it's too late.

So instead of trying to figure everything out while you're there, you're supported by someone who already knows how to navigate it.

Whether your vision is something iconic or completely off the beaten path, I help bring it together in a way that feels effortless and true to you.

Because at the end of the day, this isn't just about location, it's about creating an experience that feels seamless from start to finish.

Effortless. Seamless. Intentional.

You live it.

We'll take care of the rest.

STUDIO TULUM

Conclusion

Most couples choose a combined photo and video experience to keep everything seamless and we offer a refined 5% saving when both are booked together.

If your vision doesn't quite fit into a package, that's completely fine too.

Every wedding is different, and we offer custom collections tailored to how you actually want your day to look and feel, not just what's standard.

Thank you for taking the time to explore what we offer.

We don't take that lightly.

This is one of the most important days of your life, and choosing the right people to capture it matters more than you think.

If what you've seen resonates, the next step is simple.

Let's have a quick discovery chat, no pressure, just a conversation to understand your plans, your vision, and what matters most to you.

You can enquire through the Wedding Inquiry link, or reach out directly via call or SMS using the number below.

For our overseas couples, we're always available on WhatsApp.

Congratulations, you're about to step into something incredible.

Let's make it unforgettable.
