About Chris Delmer

Chris Delmer, of Chris Delmer Performance Horses, has been an NCHA trainer for 35 years. He has trained multiple National & Reserve National champions. In this clinic with Chris, you will learn how to train your own National Champion! You will be shown how to set your horse up on a cow and control your cow across the pen. Chris will show you when it's time to get off your cow and choose another. You will also be shown the use and importance of the flag. Learning these things will set you and your horse up for success in the Herd Work / Cutting pen!

Sign up for the SHOOTOUT!

Shootout to be held immediately after the clinic. $500 added monies! Buckles awarded to high score in both the PRO and the AMATEUR.

A Shootout is a judged herd work class.

Available to clinic attendees ONLY! Chris Delmer to judge.
